arts council

Follow the Arts Council on Facebook to see the full council membership and our event details, search facebook@ArtsCouncilConcerts or click the link to the Arts Council at wbcity.org.

Emily Holgrem

Arts Council Welcomes New Member

During our November meeting Emily Holgrem was officially welcomed as a member of the Arts Council. We thank her for willingness to share her talents and to be part of our efforts to foster the Arts in our community.

Watercolor Immersion Event

JAN. 11 - 7 PM - CITY HALL

Please join us in January as the Arts Council kicks off its 2019 Concert Series & Events for an evening immersed in watercolor with Jean Vandertoolin. Jean's artwork has been on display in the Council Chambers at City Hall for the past 6 months and she will take center stage showing, telling and demonstrating the art of painting with watercolor; an art medium fun to paint with for all ages.

Leger and Company Night of Music Favorites

FEB. 8 - 7 PM - CITY HALL

In February, we will bring the multi-talented Mike Leger, and if we are lucky, some members of his familiy to our concert stage. Mike, a former Arts Council member, vocalist and guitar guru, will share his love for the Beatles and may be joined by his wife Leslie and son Andy for a number or two. His father-in-law Alan Marsden will also entertain us singing love songs and Valentine favorites. In addition, the walls of the council chambers will be adorned with the work of a new featured artist, Sherry Meidell, Come early to get a seat; 7 pm at city hall.

Santa's WB Visit

As in the past the Arts Council will not hold a concert at city hall the 2nd Friday of December. Instead we'll be supporting the Youth City Council in welcoming Santa to West Bountiful, meeting and greeting him upon his arrival at City Hall after his annual ride on a fire truck through the streets of West Bountiful. See you there, Mon. Dec 3.