5.  7:55pm
Consideration of vehicle allowance for City Administrator

City Administrator Craig Howe requested that the vehicle allowance that has been budgeted be authorized for his use since he prefers to use his own vehicle rather than the city vehicles when conducting business. Amount budgeted is currently $425/month.

Discussion was held as to practicality of keeping city vehicles in use as opposed to selling them, and using city vehicles as opposed to providing allowance for use of personal vehicle.

It was proposed that Craig Howe keep a record of mileage used, to be made available at a future meeting when the issue can be revisited.

MOTION: Council member Ken Romney made motion to table issue and revisit it in month or two.

SECONDED: Council member James Bruhn seconded the motion.

PASSES: Motion passes unanimously in favor.

Planning Commission Report

Mayor James Behunin invited the visiting Cub Scouts to tell Council the best thing about living in West Bountiful.

Leader Tristina Bown likes the closeness of the community. Natalie Hogge likes the diversity, including farms and horses.

Cub Scouts Logan Caldwell, Braydon Wall, Spencer Jorgensen, Gunner Martin, Cole Salmon, Anthony Wuthrich, and Bubba Hogge gave favorable comments regarding police force, community, schools, baseball fields, and parks.

It was mentioned that Dell Butterfield had applied for amendment to the building moratorium in order to finish the home in Millcreek Meadows. This issue was resolved in last planning commission meeting.

Craig Howe said Planning Commission is looking at southwest side of city and possibility of involving citizens with large properties, the goal being to maintain agricultural flavor of West Bountiful. He is couraged with plans that are being discussed.
8.
8:30pm
Administrative Report

New Hire - Accountant I - Craig Howe reviewed candidates who applied. Heidi Vordeckers was selected, and starts March 2nd.

Well Report - samples for iron bacteria came up negative

Code Enforcement - requests future discussion of visits to homeowners regarding beautification and code enforcement, specifically liability issues involved. Debbie McKean stated there are steps involved which are working well, and does not feel discussion is necessary. Mayor Behunin does not foresee any confrontational issues. Craig Howe would like to update employee ID badges.

Budget Schedule - Craig Howe is still working in the budget and is waiting to get the department heads together.
-Repairs on heavy equipment could be significant expense
-Water Bond is in. First project is water line on Porter Lane. Water lines on 1000 North and 400 North will be worked on, also. Jason Birmingham has been lobbying in Washington to possibly receive more funds to help with these projects.
-Jason Meservy of Trails Commission is approaching state for additional funding for Rails to Trails. Mayor Behunin asked status of Denver Rio Grande trail. Mr. Meservy referred to a recent meeting held by the Trails Commission, in which it was decided to remove equestrian part of trail as it would bring horses too close to bikers, etc. Not enough funds to pave entire trail yet. Another meeting will be held. Fifth South is under UDOT. Porter Lane being bid out.
-1100 West resurfacing bids: $185,000 bid came in $157,000. About half of funds available for what is needed. There is the potential of using Capital Improvement funds until the B & C road funds come in.
-County renewed contract for animal control, which is $1100 per month for this year. Amount for year is approximately $300 less than amount for last year. Amount allowed is based on two-year average expenditures.

8:40pm
Mayor/Council Reports

Valerie Shaw - potholes on 400 North between 800 West and 1100 West.

Debbie McKean - valve cover to water line missing by the crossing at 1100 West and 400 North, creating hazard for children.

Debbie McKean - Update on courts: John Petroff has legal people drawing up paperwork. There may be issue with having enough prosecutors. Advantage of moving courts to Farmington is they are in session every day, as opposed to Wednesdays only. Procedures would be basically the same; appointments would still be made for court dates. West Bountiful can keep Youth Court Mayor Behunin requested update on Engineering Services.

-Ken Romney asked Craig Howe to provide expenditures on CRS as of current time. Mayor asked for figures on cost of an in-house engineer. Ken Romney and James Bruhn will work on update for Mayor Behunin this week.
