Ben White gave a brief background on the City Code and the City Zones and explained the error and mistakes made when changing the ordinances prior to now. Staff noted the error and is asking for it to be replaced in the code/ordnance to correct the over site.

Chairman Hopkinson explained the procedure in presenting items for discussion and having the individual opportunity to respond and comment as commissioners. He asked them to become familiar with Roberts Rules of Order.

Each commissioner was given the opportunity to ask questions regarding adding the language to this ordinance. Mike Cottle was given further information from Ben White to understand the purpose of this ordinance and the differences between permitted uses, conditional uses, home occupation permit, etc. Mr. White explained that as simple as changing this language it is still important to follow the correct procedure to making changes.

Chairman Hopkinson further explained the process and where the changes will be made on this specific ordinance.

Laura Charchenko inquired about the definitions and if it needed to be included. Mr. White explained that the definitions are already included.

Discussion of Planning Commission Charter

Cathy Brightwell presented Chapter 2.36 Planning Commission to the Planning Commission for their review in the Commission packet. Mr. Hopkinson explained that this Chapter will refresh the knowledge of those who have been serving along with those newly appointed. He encouraged them to read this Chapter and pointed out a few specific items to note:

- Where the alternate sits during the meeting and when they sit in and vote. He requested that they take the seat on the stand in the absence of any regular commissioner.
- Packets are ready Friday before the regularly scheduled Planning Commission meeting and it is their responsibility to study and do their homework regarding the issues at hand on the agenda. It is important that they are prepared and familiarize themselves with the issues. He explained that the code book is online and encouraged them to study it.
- Legal ramifications are made here at the meetings. It is important that they remain impartial as a legal entity and press forward the findings from the ordinances that back their decisions, then move it to Staff for implementation. It is important to get the motions legally verbalized and specific to the section it should be put into place. He encouraged them to take notes and ask questions. Listen to staff and other commissioners comments.

- Chairman Hopkinson explained how to make a motion and carry a motion through and being correct with the motion.
- Minutes are reviewed and approved. Check the information content and if there are errors recognize them at the time prior to the minutes being approved.
- Chairman Hopkinson would like the new commission to have time frames when the General Plan is due for review. It was noted that the last update was in 2006. He would like to set goals. Mayor suggested that they set a schedule to accomplish ordinance reviews. Ben White noted that the subdivision ordinance and the animal ordinances are the two current ordinances currently being reviewed. It is a lengthy process at times and often times there will not be a full consensus on everything. These ordinance need to be reviewed before applicants and emotions become involved. Curb, gutter and sidewalk needs to be pre-planned before development begins particularly in the Westside of our city.
- Chairman Hopkinson encouraged the commission to become familiar with the Blended Use Zone Ordinance. It is extremely specific and involves the city in the overall design as a partner.
- Our City staff are your friends and will give you information at any time. Alan and Denis offered their help and assistance as well.

Consider motion to recommend adding “child care or nursery” to the list of permitted uses in Section 17.24 of the West Bountiful City Municipal Code.

ACTION TAKEN:

Alan Malan moved to add “child care or nursery” to the list of conditional and permitted uses in Section 17.24 of the West Bountiful City Municipal Code, Residential R-1-10 zone. Motion was seconded by Laura Charchenko and voting stood unanimous in favor among those present.

Discussion of Farm Animal work session with City Council scheduled for January 31 at 7:30 p.m. and review of Farm Animal package:

Cathy Brightwell and Ben White prepared a memorandum and summary of the issues regarding the Farm Animal Ordinance that has been discussed over the past several months. This will allow newly appointed members of the Planning Commission and newly elected officials the opportunity to review the history and background in order to prepare for the scheduled work session to be held on Tuesday, January 31 at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Hopkinson informed the commission that there is a lot of information regarding this item. People who already have their rights in place by current ordinances are grandfathered into the system until their use changes.

He directed them to look at the packet and review the history of activity regarding this that Staff has put together. The discussion will begin with how many animals per acre will be allowed.

Ben White briefed the commission as to why this ordinance is being reviewed. A resident complained about how many horse his neighbor had and the Staff told the resident the neighbor was compliant with the Code and he/she disagreed. The resident appealed staff’s decision to the City Council. The appeal was granted, in part, because of specific language in the ordinance. Lots of input and long evenings regarding this ordinance have taken place. A work session is going to be held to discuss some of the differences that the commission and council have. He explained the process that takes place in the work session that will be held on January 31, 2012. He explained that if the council deviates too far from the commissions recommendations it will come back to the Planning Commission again.
Mrs. Voordeekers noted that there should be no public comment made even thought it is an open meeting and the public is allowed to attend.

Mayor Romney explained some of the ideas that have been presented for consideration for deciding how many animals should be on a particular plot size of land.

Chairman Hopkinson noted that the work session will allow the Council to understand how the Commission got to the decisions they made to forward to them. The animals have to be taken into consideration as well as how to keep them. It becomes an emotional issue as well.

He commended Ben and Cathy for a job well done in providing information to them.

Staff Introductions and Report:

- Staff introductions were done at the beginning of the meeting.
- Planning Commission may need to make additional recommendations for our Sign Ordinance to the City Council. There is a pending draft. The ordinance was put on hold by the City Council to do some research on some types of signs. It will be brought before the City Council at the next meeting and may land back at the Planning Commission level.
- Cathy Brightwell asked if it was helpful to have packet information emailed to them and explained that full packets will be available at the city offices. Denis likes to get his packet electronically, but if the files are too large then the attachments can be picked up at the office. It was determined that general information will be sent and a note made to direct them that further information is available.
- Denis suggested that they be set up with a city email with the option to forward that to their personal email accounts so they know to look at their city email account.
- Cathy will send the electronic packet which will let the commission know that the hard copy of the packets are available. She asked that the Commissioners let them know if they need more time than Friday to have things to review.
