

WEST BOUNTIFUL

ARTS COUNCIL

PRESENTS

FEATURED ARTISTS

NOVEMBER

Jackie Miller

The featured artist for September will be West Bountiful's Jackie Miller who passed away on April 30. We remember well Jackie's love for West Bountiful. The Historic Preservation Commission was one of the many committees she served on, and one of her most memorable projects was the creation of a city historical timeline. The Art's Council felt strongly that it should be displayed once again as part of this year's Founders Day celebration. You won't want to miss this pictorial walk through West Bountiful history. Don't be surprised if you or a member of your family appears in this journey through time. Jackie's timeline will be on display at city hall through October and the first part of November.

DECEMBER

City Hall Staff & Employees

As our community transitions from "thanks" to "giving" the city staff and employees will contribute to the season with the tradition of lights, holly, tinsel, and a Christmas Tree as they decorate city hall in preparation for a visit by Santa Claus.

Artists' work may be seen in the lobby of City Hall.

GOT TALENT?

The West Bountiful Arts Council continually wants to give local West Bountiful artists an opportunity to perform or showcase their art. Contact Eric Eastman at 801-292-0664 if you or someone you know is interested in sharing a talent with the community.

Hutchings to share vocal talent

Friday, November 9, 2012 ~ 7 p.m. - City Hall

November's concert will present singer Sherrie Hutchings who will perform a variety of Broadway songs as well as some by Patsy Cline and other country and western singers. Sherrie and her husband returned to the home of her ancestors four and a half years ago when they moved to West Bountiful. They brought their horses with them, and she claims the horses love it here as much as they do. Sherrie started singing at age four when she loved standing on the woodpile and sang to an imaginary audience. Since then, she has performed for many live audiences that are are captivated by her warm enthusiasm, smile, energy, and sheer love for the art of vocal performance.
