

WEST BOUNTIFUL

ARTS COUNCIL

Martineau Family to perform

Friday, March 13, 2014 7 p.m. - City Hall

In March, the Arts Council will feature the Kent and Sheryl Martineau family in concert. They are long time residents of West Bountiful, having lived in the community for the past 37 years. They raised 12 children here and now have 37 grandchildren and one great grandchild. Eight of the 12 children still live in Utah with four out of state. This multi-talented family will entertain us with pianists, soloists, a family choir, and a band. We are certain to be treated to a variety of musical genres during this evening's concert.

Young Artists concert to return

Friday May 8, 2014

7 p.m. - City Hall

The May concert follows the West Bountiful Arts Council mission to reach out to the community for the purpose of fostering the arts and strengthening community spirit. Our annual tribute to the talented young musicians in our community will allow them to showcase their developing talents. The attendance of the community will help motivate their continued pursuit for excellence. We applaud their dedication and many hours of practice. Last year fourteen young artists showcased a variety of instrumental and vocal performances, and we expect a similar showing this year.

Improvables comedy troupe to make appearance

Friday, April 10, 2014

7 p.m. - City Hall

In April, the Arts Council will bring to the concert series an improvisational comedy troupe called Improvables. West Bountiful's own Ricky Ferlin and Brianne Sanddorf are part of this award winning troupe, which was formed in 2008 at Rogers Memorial Theater. In an Improvables show, performers turn audience suggestions into family-friendly comedy on the spot. Members of the troupe range from teenaged to middle-aged. Some are professional actors; others are college students, accountants, and everything in between. It's an unlikely group united by their love of making people laugh. Ricky and Brianne are both natives of West Bountiful and became involved in theater at a young age.

Left to right, Keenan Abegg, Bryan Dayley, and Ricky Ferlin (on the floor) perform with Improvables.

As teenagers, they appeared in several theatrical performances together. Ricky's quick wit won him a place on the troupe roster when he was in his late teens; Brianne first performed with the Improvables in 2013. Bring the family and join us at city hall for a fun-filled hour of laughter and family-friendly entertainment.