

WEST BOUNTIFUL

ARTS COUNCIL

PRESENTS

An Evening with Mr. Maloy

Friday, April 11, 2014 - 7 p.m. - City Hall

Our April concert will be, in the words of Mr. Maloy, "something totally different!" Paul Maloy is the son of Elwood and Colleen Maloy and recently moved his family back to West Bountiful. In 2004, he walked away from a 20-year, lucrative career with several major companies to become a junior high teacher. He has taught 7th and 8th grade history at Legacy Preparatory Academy in Woods Cross since they opened. Paul has taken the stage with his Barbershop Quartet, but this time, he will present a program designed for adults and youth. With his energetic and fun teaching style, which has endeared him to students and parents, this program is sure to entertain and inspire as he shares stories and insights, ultimately suggesting that we are all master teachers. This will be a fun, insightful, multimedia presentation exploring the curious quirks of humanity and how we can make a greater contribution to our families and communities. Please join us..bring your students!

Young Artists Concert

Come support local, talented youth

Friday, May 9, 2014

7 p.m. - City Hall

May's concert is our annual tribute to West Bountiful's own talented young musicians. Fourteen young artists will dazzle concert goers with a variety of instrumental and vocal performances including three harpists, piano solos and duets, vocal soloists, a cellist, a bassoonist, two guitarists, and a saxophonist. As always, the concert will be at city hall and begins at 7 p.m. We invite you to celebrate with us the accomplishments of these talented, truly dedicated, developing musicians.

Folk and country music concert set for June

Friday, June 13, 2014

7 p.m. - City Hall

The June concert will be an evening of folk and country music presented by a group of four called "Time River." Lynn Ballard, father of West Bountiful's Steve Ballard from our cowboy poetry program, will perform along with Don Hansen, Steve Van Dyke, and Julie Ann Bradshaw. The group has performed at Brigham Young Park and before a variety of other audiences. Join us for a lively evening of entertainment.
