Council Member Reports:

8. Water and Roads (Council Member Nathan Spackman)—Bobby will be about 3 months on medical leave before coming back to work. The pumps are going good. Council Member Spackman changed the level of the well on the monitors and eliminated the flow from one end of town to the other so the pumps won't turn on as often.
9. Documentation, Public Info. Ordinance Enforcement (Council Member Eric Anderson)--nothing new
10. Park, Walking Trail, Tree Board P&Z, (Council Member Joe Kliger) The Council discussed the fee for inspections and it was decided that they will need to change the fee schedule. Commissioner Page discussed the Planning & Zoning rewrite of the zoning book. Council Member Bingham discussed the legal issues of changing the book. The discussion went to Tom Christensen's annexation and lot subdivision. There is a water line running through one of the lots and the cemetery road is on his property. He wants to annex the portion of his property that is in the County into Deweyville. He will attend the next Council meeting.
11. Buildings and Cemetery Maintenance (Todd Bingham)--nothing new to report
