Meeting opened at 7:00 p.m

1. Opening Ceremony—Council Member Anderson gave the prayer, and Mayor Thayne gave the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. Discussion with Elwood About Shared Spring Renovation Steve Woerner and Gina Marble. They are losing water out of their springs. Water is coming out above their well. They are assuming that the liners have eroded. They want to do a complete renovation. The cost will be about $20,000 to $25,000 for the engineering and about $200,000 for the renovation. Gina Marble said that BRAG has some available funds for engineering. Deweyville and Elwood would each pay $8,000. We would need three bids. Council Member Spackman said that Bear River Conservancy may pay for the engineering. He will follow up to see what is available.

MOTION: Council Member Andersen made the motion to approve the Shared Spring Renovation. Council Member Bingham seconded the motion. Motion passes unanimously.
