LINDON MARINA NOW OPEN

The Lindon Marina is under new ownership and is available for recreation fun 24 hours each day of the week! The City does not own or operate the Marina, but is proud to have this amenity in our city. There are two large boat ramps, great fishing, sailing, picnicking, an onsite convenience store and just a lot of relaxing by the water! Paddle-boards, kayaks, canoes and jet-ski rentals are also available at very reasonable prices. There is also a newly constructed area for storage of boats, jet skis, RVs, campers, etc. Access to the Marina is available for a nominal fee or season passes can be obtained. For more information call 801-980-3104 or visit their website www.lindonmarina.com or their facebook page and type in "Lindon Marina".

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY "RESTORE"

Shop, Recycle, Reuse, donate and volunteer at Habitat for Humanity of Utah County's two ReStores. ReStores sell new and used building material, furniture, appliances, hardware, electrical, plumbing, flooring and cabinets. All items are sold at huge discounts and all profit is used to help accomplish Habitat's mission of eliminating poverty housing. They recycle metal, aluminum cans, and cardboard and use the money for the same purpose. Visit their website www.habitatuc.org for opportunities to volunteer and to donate.
