

Fall Newsletter 2010

Dear Friends,

How was your summer? I just got back from visiting my son in Philadelphia. It is a rare treat to have free time for all of us to get together. We had a good time seeing the historic sites, eating at the restaurants in Philly and of course shopping.

I visited The Spool (a fabric shop) and The Loop (a yarn shop). Yarn & fabric are my two favorite shopping obsessions. I bought some yummy pink fabric for a dress for my granddaughter and some yarn for the "Drop Stitch Weave" class. By the way this is going to be an interesting class. It's this Sat. Sept 11th at 9:30 am. Bring a 9x12" swatch and learn how to "jazz up" your knitting. Call for more information.

Since I was gone the air has suddenly turned cool. I guess it's time to put the swimming suit away. It won't be long before the leaves turn colors and the cider starts showing up at the road side stands. And with a little bit of luck we will enjoy a beautiful autumn season. Are you ready for autumn? Come in to see us at The Needleworks. I have a "ton" of new fabric and yarn coming in over the next few months, including some cute Halloween fabrics.

Check out the
Our Halloween
again if you home with some some new included for

"great" classes we have lined up. Party will get you started sewing have been in a rut. You will go fun projects and inspiration to try things. All materials and lunch is $25.

Jack 'O Lantern Quilt Class Sept. 20, 27 & Oct 4th

You'll have it done long before the kids show up asking for treats.

Halloween Fun

Mary Lee Minis will be teaching the Celtic Knot Class on Wed Oct 6th & 13 th.

This technique is deceptively easy. Once you learn how to make one you may find yourself wanting to make a whole quilt of Celtic Knots!

Bring your daughter or granddaughter to the “Learn to Sew” Class with Cheryl Weiderspahn on November 6th. This time the “girls” will be learning how to make a simple backpack using 2 placemats and 2 belts. This class is perfect for a child that is new to sewing.

The Purse Clinic is back again.

Choose any Quilt Lovers Design pattern
Finish in a day at The Needleworks.
Saturday Oct. 16th.
Pictured to the right is the purse that converts into a backpack.

Looking ahead into November we will be hosting our own Christmas event. The Friday after Thanksgiving I will have a sale and on Saturday we will have food & Demos all day long. More information will be coming as we get closer to those dates.

Don't forget to look for new products & information under what's new on our website

<http://www.theneedleworksonline.com>

