Quilt Sampler News

Summer time, and the living is easy.... (though that's hard to remember when you're mowing the lawn sometimes.) We have been busy here looking for all kinds of techniques and gadgets to make your life easier. We found a marking pen at market that disappears when you iron it! There are also new vintage postcards and potholders. What a quick gift to have on hand! And when it gets just too darn hot to do anything else, it's a great time to stay in and sew. Both Pfaff and Bernina have introduced new machines. You'll also want to check out all the adorable new Christmas fabric coming in. Maybe working on a snowman quilt would help cool you off? So grab that glass of lemonade and come on in to see all the fun new gadgets and goodies that are coming in every day.
