Quilting Retreat

Here I wish to share about the Quilting Retreat that 7 of us Ladies went on in Oct. Located in Trenton Ga. It was a Fun filled weekend with gourmet food by Fran!

It is located deep in the woods away from civilization that has a pond, goats, geese, chickens, and a donkey. It was very peaceful and relaxing.

Us ladies had made wonderful projects and went to a fabric shop about 15 miles from the Retreat in Flat Rock, Alabama buying up lots of material!

Jackie did a wonderful job of teaching and helping us with the various projects learning new techniques and ways in quilting.

Here we are sewing away on our quilting projects.

Mug rug and paper piecing.

Ginger showing her creation for paper piecing.

Some projects we created on the retreat. This was well worth the trip as we learned new things, made friends, enjoyed life, and ate great food.

Quilt till You Wilt

What a party we had with the Quilt till you Wilt on Saturday the 29th of Oct. there were so many who showed up and we ate some really good food. Thanks to all who came and donated food!! Susan and I stayed the whole night boy was that fun!!!! I work on my costume for the block party which was Mumble Happy Feet. It was a success at the block party. Kids and grown-ups alike just loved it and I had to dance so many times I was burning up. Having a great time and enjoying the company of friends and family.

Just want to add thank you ladies for making this a special place to come together sew, make friends and enjoy quilting in a very special way. I wish to say thanks to all who came to the quilt till you wilt as it was so much fun!
