This is a time to get your quilts on display as soon as possible as they are excepting a limited amount of quilts. I am going to enter my Native Quilt the one I put in at Mount Olive! There will be lots of quilts of all categories, from artist to the very old type, that are displayed behind glass so as to protect them. I hope to see many of you there!

If you need information about event you can ask Susan at Hyderhangout or go to this link to see more information on this event.

Thanks to all who came to the Christmas Party. It was such a fun a time of giving, sharing, caring, and good food. We say an appreciation to all who helped decorate and for those who brought food and drink! It could not be a success with out you! Here are photos from the Parade and Christmas Party!

Now the Christmas Party!

Happy New Year!!
