Winter Events

Fire & Ice Festival Mt. Holly NJ

Sat. January 29, 2011

One of my favorite events & it's free & fun for the entire family. This event combines two popular traditions- Mount Holly's Ice Carving Festival & Annual Chili Contest. A family-oriented downtown event featuring pro & amateur ice carvers turning 300 lb ice blocks into crystalline works of art & where you can get the best chili in town! www.FireAndIceFestival.com A cure for cabin fever, so bundle up & come on down. Many of the shops will also be offering free chili tastings while you shop!

National Make a Blanket Day -

A Project Linus Charity Event

Sat Feb 19 • 10-1pm

This year's project from Quiltmaker Magazine is called Dancing with Waves & it's adorable. A bright quilt with alternating blocks of colorful boats! Very easy & if you don't know how to paper piece we'll teach you! All you need for class is your sewing machine; all fabrics for the quilt will be provided by The Village Quilter.

Our 9th Anniversary Sale!
