Mabelena Closing...

I thought that would get your attention! We will close at 5pm this Thursday night (October 28) and next week (November 4). I'm sorry for any inconvenience.

We have some fun, quick classes to help you prepare for the holidays. I invite you to sign up for a class and take a (*) class for free.

Our on going classes continue:

Thimbleberries continue on the second Monday at 11am or 6:30pm.

Our "Circle of Friends" meet the fourth Monday of each month, 7-8pm. Join the circle: A 1930's block of the month designed by Judie Rothermel for Marcus Brothers.

Pizza & Projects from 5-10pm, $10.00
November 12th and 19th
December 10th and 17th

The Cabin Fever Shop Hop is the weekend of February 11, 12, 13th, 2011. We've been meeting to plan this fun event. Last year, some of the proceeds "went to the dogs" as generous customers gave donations to support local shelters. This year we will help to support our troops. A list of items needed by our service people will be available. Mabelenas will accept these donations and will help with supplies for Carole Carroll's Miracle Quilts.

We have received numerous pillowcases from caring women. Some of the pillowcases will go to Children's Hospital with the rest providing comfort to local children. We will help OCEF at Christmas with fresh pillows and pillowcases. We have some kits at the store that need sewn. Also, please consider picking up a pillow or two as you shop. Thank you for your kindness!

Now, on to our classes...

Happy Halloween!

Please check out my dear granddaughter, Marin! I made her costume from Alexander Henry's "the ghastlies" sweet fabric. Our family friend took these amazing photographs.
