

Kent Hughes

I am a retired teacher and school Librarian. I retired from Bear River High School in 2005.

The subjects I taught were American History, Government, Geography and Utah History.

I graduated from USU with a BS and Med. I have a major in Political Science.

I am married to Deanne, a former Elementary teacher. We have three daughters, Becky, Katie, and Julie and six grandchildren.

My hobbies and interests include following the Aggies, Air Shows, Politics and reading Military History.

I have lived in Garland most of my life.
