Reminder to kids on bicycles..... if you are riding your bikes at night, have your parents put reflectors on your bikes. Be sure to wear light colored clothing, so motorists can see you better.

Please, while we are having hot dry weather, refrain from starting any fires, AT ALL. We want our community to be safe!

Elk County Free Fair
In Longton

Enjoy the 2011 Free Fair on August 5th & 6th!!!!

Schedule of events are available at local businesses.

Organizations, Churches & anyone who would like to be in a parade, is welcome to join in the parade, Saturday morning downtown Longton.

Longton citizens have been enjoying the Sidewalk Art in front of the grocery store & café. What a talented artist we have in town!
Thank you, Prestyn.

LONGTON'S VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

Are busy upgrading their equipment and training, and they need our support. You can support our local volunteers by purchasing a raffle tickets for a Home Emergency Basket. There will two baskets raffled off filled with a fire extinguisher, a carbon monoxide alarm/smoke alarm, a Coleman focusing lantern with extra batteries and some emergency candles. The baskets were donated by Fire Chief Mack Kill. The winning tickets will be drawn during the food auction at the fair on Aug.5th. You need not be present to win..... Buy your tickets at the local businesses for $1 a ticket or $5 for 6-tickets.

The Fire Department is also collecting recipes for a Longton Volunteer Fire Department Cookbook that will be available for sale after publication. So turn in your favorite recipe(s) with your name to any one of Longton's firefighters, or mail to Longton Fire Dept. PO Box 18, Longton, KS 67352 – or you may email to city@sktc.net. The deadline to get your family recipe in the cookbook is Sept. 2nd. For more info, contact Andrea Kimzey @ 642-2017. Proceeds from sales of the cookbook will go toward new equipment for the Fire Department.

Longton Public Library News

This summer's reading program theme is "One World, Many Stories" This program encourages young ones to read for pleasure. If you would like to help the Library with this program, contact Jolie Gerding at 642-6012 or 642-7907. Donations of your time, prizes, small toys or refreshments are needed. Activies will be held on July 25 thru 29 from 10am to noon at the United Methodist Church.
