

Country Roads News

We are excited to announce our new Block of the Month program, Merry, Merry Snowmen, will be starting this month. The BOM program will run for nine months. A daytime class will start on Tuesday, February 21st at 11 AM and a Saturday class will start on Saturday, March 3 at 10AM. The cost will be $60.00 which includes the pattern and the classes. Fabric will be additional. If you have already signed up, please call or stop by the shop to register for the session of your choice. If you are interested and haven't signed up yet, call soon because space is limited. This is a beautiful quilt, so don't miss out!!

We have another exciting announcement. Starting in March, Amanda Riley will begin teaching a series of art quilt workshops. Amanda has a degree from WVU in Art Education and for several years has been combining her passion for the arts and love of fabrics into art quilts. In each monthly workshop you will explore a different technique which will be used to create mini art quilt. Whether you are a seasoned quilter or new to the quilting world, these workshops will enrich your quilting experience. Check out our website, www.countryroadsquilts.com for more information.

There are still a few openings for Quilter's Day and Nite Out. This month we will be using a bargello technique to create either a wall hanging or a table runner. This is a really fun and creative technique and we will be doing some of the cutting! Remember the food is on us.
