

COUNTDOWN TO CHRISTMAS

Feel like taking a little risk? We're having a progressive sale on our Christmas fabric (and we have thrown in some Halloween as well) in December. Prices get lower as time goes by - but, will the fabric you want still be there if you wait? That's the chance you take!

On December 1st, Christmas fabric is 20% off. On December 2nd, it's 21% off; We'll add a percentage each day we are open, through December 24th, when it's 40% off through December 31st.

How low will it go before it's gone?

If it is stamped,

yes

It is part of the sale.

1/2 yard minimum, in store only.

Sorry, no online sales.
