

What's New At High Country Quilts?

What a great year we are having so far! Our classrooms are filled with the sound of laughter and machines buzzing. What could be better than that? We have several guest teachers in the lineup including Helen Gibb and her gorgeous ribbon work, Cindy Needham and her whole cloth linens, Jill Gorsky with some "button fun", and Kay McCain who will be directing our T-N-T (embroidery tips and techniques) program in the fall. These are all sure to be outstanding classes!

Some great Block of the Month programs are in the lineup which are sure to please. "Christmas Traditions" will trace the history of the Christmas tree as we piece together an old fashioned masterpiece. And, since we are in the midst of the "anniversary" of the civil war, we have several great Block of the month programs to really bring you up close and personal with the women of the era. We will be introducing "Cotton Club" starting in September and then in October comes "the General's Wives". And of course, "Patriots in Petticoats" continues to be popular. We are currently receiving a great selection of Christmas and holiday fabrics daily; stop in soon for the best selection.

We have a great bus trip headed to the "Quilt Show" in August, so if you haven't registered, it is filling quickly!

And, last but certainly not least, we are planning our Quilt Cruise for March of 2012! We will once again be visiting the Eastern Caribbean for some fun in the sun! If you are not already on the waiting list and would like to be, please do so soon! As you can imagine, spots are filling quickly.

Thanks to all of you, our customers, for your support. We truly would not be here without each and every one of you!!

Have a "pieceful" day,
Jean and Karen
