Issue #1022

I've been on the run the last few weeks with speaking engagements, workshops, and just recently, a trip to the Country Living Fair in Columbus, OH. The ads promised antiques, crafts, food and personalities right out of the pages of Country Living magazine and did not disappoint. We listened to Amy Barickman of Indigo Junction, Taniya Nayak of HGTV's Designed to Sell and Sue Whitney of JunkMarket fame share their stories and tips on everything from modern country decorating to converting junk to treasures to creating fabulous garments and bags from vintage linens. So inspiring! And then there were the vendors - vintage quilts & linens, jewelry from keys and buckles and beads, art from found objects and fall decor galore. I was in heaven! Just what I needed to spark the imagination for future projects and a little sprucing up around the house for fall. Meeting friends for a weekend of shopping was the perfect getaway for me. Take some time this month to get out, play, enjoy. It's the best therapy.

WHAT'S NEW WITH KTQ

There's so much happening before market. Our new booklet, BORDER GARDEN, with The Kansas City Star will be available in the next few weeks, KT FAVORITES basic fabric line will arrive at quilt shops and our new PERENNIALS collection will be shown at Fall Market. In addition, our new Block-of-the-Month, KT Favorites - 10 Years & Counting, will be featured on our website with orders beginning in November/shipments beginning in February 2011. Don't miss the chance to collect KT blocks and appliques from the first 33 fabric lines to date to make a fabulous quilt. We love it!

THIS MONTH'S PROJECT

A row of raw edge pumpkins on a layered background is just the thing for harvest decorating. Our 17" mini table treat is the perfect size for an end table, candle mat or backdrop for your favorite fall centerpiece. Collect a variety of yummy orange fabrics and stitch a mini pumpkin patch of your own to use now and all through the fall season.

PERENNIALS per·en·ni·al (pə-rĕn'ē-əl)

adj. - lasting or active through the year or through many years

- appearing again & again

n. - something that recurs on a yearly or continual basis

Sound familiar? We'd like to think that after 10 years, KT is a perennial favorite of quilters. Here's the latest collection featuring KT's signature warm colors of red, navy, green, gold, purple and black in prints and geometrics to mix and match in any quilt. Watch for it in your local quilt shop in January 2011.

PUMPKIN DIP

- 1 pkg. (8 oz) cream cheese, softened
- 1 can (15 oz) solid-pack pumpkin
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1 Tblsp. pumpkin pie spice
- 1 Tblsp. honey

In a large bowl, mix all ingredients until smooth. Cover and refrigerate until serving.

This frightfully easy dip is ready for the witching hour with just a few ingredients. Cut scary shapes from pre-made pie dough (ghosts, black cats, brooms) and sprinkle with colored sugar or purchase gingersnaps or vanilla wafers for instant gratification.
