OPERATION BIGS

for Children of Military Parents

Your Mission:

Enroll your child in the Big Brothers Big Sisters Operation Bigs Program for military families.

This is a FREE program!

To Do What:

In this program, your child will meet 2-4 times a month (for at least one year) with their Big Brother or Big Sister doing things like visiting the library and participating in community events.

Why:

Little Brothers and Sisters spend time with their Bigs reading together, playing board games and sports together, and simply talking about life just as friends do. The focus of the Big Brothers Big Sisters program is to build trusting friendships that help build stronger social, academic and life skills.

Tell Me How:

To be eligible to participate in Operation Bigs, your child must be 9-16 years old and have a parental figure that is a U.S. Military, Reserves or National Guard member. Call (801) 313-0303 to enroll your child today.
