

REGULATION OF INTOXICANTS

10-2-1. Definition

- a. Liquor means and includes alcohol or any alcoholic spirituous vehement, fermented, malt, or other liquid, or combination of liquids, a part of which is spiritous, vehement, or fermented, and all other drinks or drinkable liquids containing more than one-half of one percent (.50%) of alcohol by weight; and all mixtures, compounds, or preparations whether liquid or not which contain more than one-half of one percent (.50%) of alcohol by weight and which are capable of human consumption, except that the term liquor shall not include beer.
- b. Beer means any beverage containing not less than one-half of one percent (.50%) of alcohol by weight and obtained by the alcoholic fermentation of an infusion or decoction of any malted grain or similar products, and which contains not more than three and two-tenth percent (3.2%) of alcohol by weight and may or may not contain hops or other vegetable products and includes ale, stout, or porter.

10-2-2. Supplying Alcoholic Beverages to Minors.

It shall be unlawful for alcoholic beverages to be given, sold, or otherwise supplied to any person under the age of 21 years, but this shall not apply to the supplying of liquor to such person for medicinal purposes only by the parent or guardian of such person or to the administering of liquor to such person by a physician in accordance with the provisions of this Title.

It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of 21 years to have possession of beer or any intoxicating liquor.

10-2-3. Drunkenness.

It shall be unlawful for any person to be drunk or intoxicated in any street or alley or public place, restaurant, hotel, lobby, or parlor, or in or upon any vehicle, or in or about any waiting station, or room, or any public gathering within the corporate limits of this Town.

10-2-4. Canvassing or Soliciting.

It shall be unlawful for any person to canvass or solicit for alcoholic beverages by mail, telephone, or other manner, and said person is hereby prohibited from engaging in said activities, except to the extent such prohibition may be in conflict with the laws of the United States or of the State of Utah.
