QUICK HOLIDAY GIFT IDEAS

A gift is always extra special when it's handmade. You may have started out with elaborate plans for your holiday gifts this year. But if you're like me time may be running out as we get closer to Christmas, so we've got some quick gifts that you still have plenty of time to whip up.

Table runners are always a quick gift. We have a handful of kits and many patterns in the shop. Holiday Bows is quick and easy to stitch up with squares and straight lines. A simple cross hatch quilting was used and is easy to do with your quilting bar. For a more traditional runner, the Poinsettias Runner is a fun mix of reds and greens and also pretty quick to put together.

If you have an embroidery machine, mug rugs are always a quick gift. OESD has a great CD that includes mug rugs and matching mug wraps. A great gift on their own or add a mug and some hot chocolate or a gift card to the recipients favorite coffee shop.

Small pillows are a cute gift as well. Attend three demo December dates and the embroidery design for the Stay Cozy pillow is free. We also have a couple of kits available if you'd like the fabric selected for you too. See page 5 for more information Need a little dedicated sewing time or a little instruction for some quick gifts? We have three quick gifts on the December class schedule: a wine bag, bowl cozy, and simple basket. These all use the Boxed Bag Template so cutting is a breeze. Not interested in a class? Pick up the postcard pattern in the shop.

QUILT MARKET

It has been three years since the last Quilt Market, so we were very excited to head back to Houston. Seeing new items on the computer is just never the same as being able to see and feel it in person. We had heard market was going to be smaller but we were surprised how much smaller it was. We were a little nervous at first that we would have a hard time finding new things. We wondered would it really be worth the trip?

But by the end of aisle one, we had already found quite a few things we were excited about including a new embroidery block of the month (more to come on that once Sandy has time to do some stitching). In aisle one, we also got to visit the Toy Department. This booth always has lots of fun gadgets to see and you can take home whatever your purchase so it's good we went with half empty suitcases! In this booth we found adorable itty bitty scissors, a traffic cone pincushion, tiny cutting mats, and sew much more. Another highlight was a new luggage company, Everything Mary. Their sewing machine luggage has an awesome number of pockets to keep your machine and all the accessories organized when you're on the go. Plus a terrific set of wheels so you can easily move the case around. They've arrived in the shop now so stop in and take a look.

Jennifer was really excited to see all the Tula Pink Everglow in person. This is the most excited she's been for a new fabric line in awhile. The Star Cluster quilt looked just as awesome in person as it did in the photos.

Plus she was able to see how she can easily use the Studio 180 tools for construction. We know what'll she be stitching in April.

Aurifil was displaying the new Tula Pink thread collection for Aurifil. They figured out how to put neon colors on cotton! This was deemed impossible until now but Aurifil figured out. The process is pretty complicated so they'll only be making one set of this thread, so when it's gone it's gone. We have preorders available on all the thread sets and the Star Cluster Quilt. Preorders need to be in by the end of November to ensure that you'll receive it when it arrives in April/May.

Sandy was most excited about her new ruler leggings! She's been eyeing these for a few markets and finally made the plunge and purchased. She was also really excited about all the new machine embroidery projects. KimberBell has an adorable new wall quilt, Oh Sew Delightful. It finishes at the perfect size for a little wall hanging for your sewing room at 26" x 38". Smith Street Designs had a fun collection of machine embroidery projects that we'll be featuring in some of our classes for 2023. They include a sewing caddy, needle organizer, greeting cards, and more.

Could there be a product better than Best Press? We met the staff from Fautless at Quilt Market and they told us their product was better. But we couldn't just take their word for it so we took a sample bottle back to the hotel room, setup an iron and got to testing. We were impressed! No smell, even spray, and one application provided the same stability as Best Press. But even better you can layer Magic Spray, so looking for a stiffer feel? Spray another layer of Magic Spray.

Overall we saw a lot of great new things at Quilt Market that we're excited to share with you!
