Hello,

Happy 4th of July. I hope you enjoyed good food and company this holiday weekend. You'll see below that I was interviewed by CNN for an article they did on rising gun sales among African Americans. I hope you'll click on the picture to check it out.

I also want to invite you to join me for the 2 Swords Tactical Talk happening this coming Friday, July 9 from 7:00-7:30pm ET on Zoom. The topic will be "Rifles - ARs". I will be sharing an overview of this firearm and then answering questions from those attending. It is free to attend, simply sign up here and we'll forward you the Zoom details. I look forward to connecting with you there and continuing to help you get the most out of your firearms.
