Happy New Year! I know this is the time of year for us all to look for fresh new ideas, making resolutions to sew more, be more organized, finish up unfinished projects...I am right there with you. I have been "spring cleaning" so to say or New Years cleaning I guess. I have organized and listed most of my UFO's, shared scraps with a good friend that will use them, and planned some great new projects for this New Exciting, New Year!

Thank you to all who donated pillowcases! I delivered 115 pillowcases to Oishei Children's Hospital in December they were very excited to receive such a wonderful gift!!

Update on my ankle, I am doing so much better. As of 12/16 I am boot free!! That sure took way longer than I expected! As soon as I got the the okay to longarm, my longarm broke and I waited for the entire month of December (like everyone else waiting for the mail) to receive my parts in the mail!

I believe now that everything is headed in the right direction! I am feeling great, my longarm is working great and we are headed into the new year with a smile!!!

Happy Sewing!! Amber

Studio Hours: Tuesday thru Friday 10-4 Saturday 10-2(if I need to close for any reason I will post on my facebook page.)
