

Old World Fantasy Week 2:

Offering you clues in two color schemes –

Blue/Gray and Red/Brown/Gold

Do not make BOTH blue/gray and brown/red/gold unless you are making two quilts!

Block 1 for today:

Cut 2 very light strips and one darker strip (a nice bright royal blue or a nice bright red) 1.5" wide.

Sew together the strips in light/dark/light as shown.

Cut off 1.5" segments.

For each size quilt you will need this many strip pieced segments:

- Lap – 9 segments

- Full – 15 segments
- Queen – 20 segments

Cut 1.5”x 3.5” pieces from light fabric as shown. (You need 2 for each block.)

and

So for each size you will need this many of the light 1.5”x 3.5” cut strips:

- Lap – 18
- Full – 30
- Queen – 40

Sew together to form a block which will now be 3.5” x 3.5” square at this point.

For each size quilt make this many blocks:

- Lap – 9
- Full – 15
- Queen – 20

Blocks 2 and 3 for today:

From each of your darker “constants”, cut 2 1.5” strips.

From a very, very light – as light as you have in your collection of blues/grays or tans/creams – cut a 1.5” strip.

Sew the strips together to form a strip set.

Cut off 1.5" segments.

You will need this many from each colorway:

- Lap – 6 of each colorway
- Full – 16 of the royal blue or red; 15 of the dark gray or brown
- Queen – 20 of each colorway

For each block, cut 2 – 1.5"x3.5" strips from the same color as you are currently using like this:

Cut –

- Lap – 12 of each colorway
- Full – 32 of the royal blue or red; 30 of the dark gray or brown
- Queen – 40 of each colorway

Make the blocks like this:

Each of these should be 3.5" x 3.5" at this point.

For each size quilt make this many:

- Lap – 6 of each colorway
- Full – 16 of the blue or red colorway; 15 of the gray or brown colorway
- Queen – 20 of each colorway

Save all your scraps. Put away your pieces for now and come back next week for week 3!
