Village Code Chapter 4 Article II Section 4E Any occupied residence and/or place of business shall be required to use the refuse collection provided by the Village.

Village Code Chapter 1 Section 3 Deposit: ...the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful, where no specific penalty is provide therefore, the violation of such provision shall be punished by fine of not less than ten ($10) dollars not exceeding one thousand ($1,000) dollars. Each day any violation of any provision shall continue shall constitute a separate offense.

In the event that the undersigned Applicant fails to make the required payment(s) for water service on the required date(s), an Event of Default will be deemed to have occurred on the earliest date that Applicant fails to make said payment(s). Village will allow Applicant seven (7) days from the Event of Default to cure the Default by Applicant doing one of the following: (i) tendering full payment to Village of the past due balance; or (ii) entering into an acceptable Installment Payment Agreement with Village. If Applicant fails to cure said Event of Default as provided for herein then, in addition to the assessment of late fees and disconnection of the water service, Applicant hereby consents and agrees that the Village shall be allowed to obtain a Confession of Judgment against Applicant in the Circuit Court of McLean County without further notice to Applicant.

By applying for water service, Applicant consents and agrees that: 1)Village can obtain said Confession of Judgment without extending further due process to Applicant; and 2) Village can obtain said Confession of Judgment for the total amount due for water service under the ordinances of the Village, less any payments previously made by Applicant, together with a Confession of Judgment for late fees, reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by Village in procuring said Confession of Judgment against Applicant.

NOTE: "Confession of Judgment" as used herein, means that in the Event of Default and failure to cure by the Applicant, as provided herein, the Village can confess a judgment against Applicant without further hearing or opportunity to dispute or object to the judgment.

Upon making application for water to be turned on at the above address, I do accept and agree to abide by all of the provisions of the Village of Downs Water Department as stated in the Code of the Village, as conditions governing the use of the Village water supply and further acknowledge, agree and accept the conditions set forth within this Application, including the Confession of Judgment provisions set forth herein.
