SWISS DESIGN

Smart, compact, versatile

The bernette 50 series is made for everyone who wants more than just a compact machine. The bernette 57 makes sewing smooth and intuitive. The bernette 59 is your easy entry into embroidery, with an app for designs you create yourself.

With the b57, getting started on your sewing project is easy. The new comfort needle threader works with a simple hand movement. You can switch the stitch plate in seconds thanks to the "Click & Lift" function, and the extension table gives you more space for your projects.

The b59 takes it further. Alongside smooth sewing, you step straight into embroidery and add personal details to your projects. In the included app, you create your ideas, send them to your b59, and bring them reliably onto fabric. This is how unique pieces come to life, made with care for little details and the way you imagined.
