

What's New? At High Country Quilts?

We're at the airport, heading back from Portland and a fantastic Spring Quilt Market! We've been so inspired by all of the wonderful new creations, and can't wait to bring them back to you! So relax, grab a cool drink, and read about the great new classes and events we have in store!

First on the agenda is our Rocky Mountain Quilt Fever Shop Hop, where we'll be celebrating our beautiful 'Colorado Skies'. You'll get a chance to visit all 8 quilt shops, each displaying beautiful quilts and goodies for your enjoyment. Don't forget to enter for a chance to win some amazing prizes.

We also have a couple of great new 'technique classes' that are project based. Join us for the debut of 'One Cool Ombre' where you can experiment while making a spectacular quilt suitable for all ages. Or, if you're interested in quilting with rulers, Cindy will be starting her 'Rulerwork Sampler' class in September.

If machine embroidery is your passion, join us for a Stroll down Smith Street where you can spend a day at the zoo, or listen to the ducks say 'quack' on the farm.

It's never too early to start 'Stitchin' it up for the Holidays! Back by popular demand...two oldies, but goodies, 'Enchanted Pumpkin' and 'The Stockings were Hung'. Sandra is also back with 'Collage Quilts'. These classes fill up quickly, so don't delay signing up.

For you BERNINA lovers, we have some great new classes and events. The 'Meet your Feet Retreat' will help you find the perfect accessory or foot for that special project. And Betty, one our favorite BERNINA educators is back, bringing you more Longarm Fun!

You may have noticed our increasing amount of fabric suitable for garments, due largely to a visit by the American Sewing Guild who met at HCQ in April. We have scheduled several easy and quick classes that make use of the terrific new BERNINA sergers and all of their extra features.

Our next adventure is to Chicago for the 125th Anniversary of BERNINA. Don't miss the party when we get back!

Have a 'pieceful' day,
Jean and Karen
