Stitches in the Sand

November 2021

MEETING DATE: November 11 in Person @ The Hills Hotel, Laguna Hills & on Zoom.

Programs

Member's Showcase: Deb Komatsu and Patrice Lambourne

It's time for Members Showcase in November! We are so lucky to have two talented BCQG members show their quilts and share their quilting stories. Members Showcase is one of my favorite meetings of the year and I hope that you will consider sharing your quilts if you are asked to do this one day. Everyone's story is unique and special. Dinner Before the Meeting: If you want to join the group dining at CPK on Marguerite before Guild, just email or text me, Keri Follmer, by "Guild Week Wednesday" (the day before the meeting) so we can notify the restaurant. (949) 285-8448 or kfollmer4@gmail.com

Deb Komatsu

I have sewn since I was about 10 when my mother sent me to Singer sewing school - twice - to learn. She hated sewing and it was to her advantage for me to do it instead. I bought my own machine after getting married and made clothes for the family and did a lot of crafts to sell at Christmas boutiques.

I took a quilt class in 1979 and didn't like the way the quilt was put together so it languished on the floor of my sewing room for almost 20 years before I took up quilting again. I joined Beach Cities in 2006 & offered my house for the Tea & Tour in 2007. That was a lot of fun and I highly recommend volunteering to do that. If nothing else, it forces you to clean up your sewing space and most of the rest of the house as well.

I am happy to be sharing my quilting journey with all of you in November.

Deb

Patrice Lambourne

I began quilting in 2004 after 45 years of garment sewing, including working and teaching at Stretch and Sew Fabrics in Sacramento and Bakersfield. I had resisted tackling a quilt because

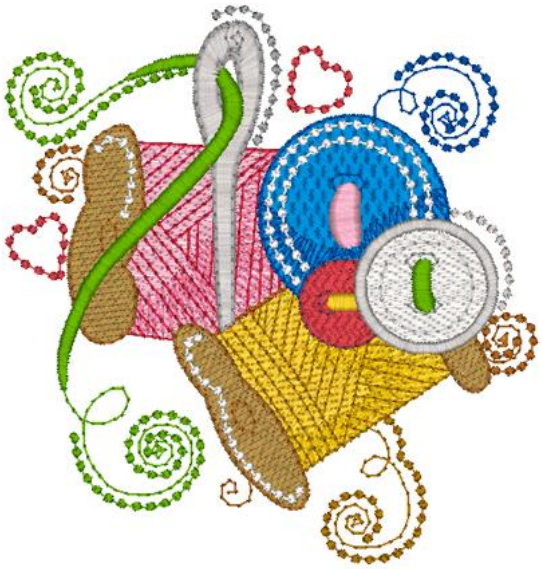
From the President

Fall is my favorite season. I love the cooler weather, wearing sweaters, decorating with pumpkins, and curling up at night in a quilt. I also get more quilting done, as I don't mind having my iron on as much! I guess I just like the changes fall brings. And speaking of changes, there's a big one coming up. We were just made aware that the Murray Center is closed on our guild night, November 11th for Veteran's Day. We were able to reserve the The Hills Hotel in Laguna Hills for that night. Thank goodness, but if the last year and a half has taught us anything, it's that we have to adapt and make room for change! So please head towards Laguna Hills and not Mission Viejo this month. The address is 25205 La Paz Road, Laguna Hills.



I hope you were able to attend the Fall into Quilts event we had in October. Not only was it a lot of fun, we raised about $20,000 which will help us fund the next year of speakers, and our Philanthropy program. Keri Follmer did such a wonderful job. In case you didn't know, she agreed to take on the Quilt Show before the pandemic, which was then canceled. She then pivoted (several times) and organized the fall fund raiser, all with a smile on her face. I also want to acknowledge Mary Arntz, who headed up the boutique, along with Wendy Price. Mary is a silent force. She not only organized the boutique, and kept all the things in her garage for over two years, she probably made half of them herself. We owe her a huge thanks for all the hard work and time it took. The boutique was a wonderland of quilts, pillows, pouches and dolls, as well as beautiful and fun seasonal items.

I also want to acknowledge the work of Jan Johnson. Jan was in charge of the raffle baskets. I don't know how she did it, but she managed to produce about 40 wonderful raffle baskets. And then became the proud owner of many auction quilts with her amazing bidding! Thank you Jan!

We are so lucky to have so many talented people in this guild, not least of which are Patrice Lambourne and Deb Komatsu, who are speaking and showing their quilts this month as part of Member's Showcase. I personally love Member's Showcase, as we get to hear about the quilting journey of people we know. I hope you can join us, either in person at the Hills Hotel, or via Zoom. Until then, Happy Fall!

Jennifer Morgan

President

Photos from October Meeting

Programs Continued

I was intimidated by the quilts made by my aunt in Santa Barbara. When I saw a group of high school students making perfect half square triangles using Thangles, a kind of paper piecing, I decided to give it a try. My first quilt, which I will share during the meeting, was a twin extra-long bedspread of 196 HSTs, plus sashing and borders, with no pattern, no instruction, and strictly flying by the seat of my pants. While I do use patterns these days, I frequently make little (or big!) changes to make each quilt a bit more personal.
Patrice

Many thanks to Deb and Patrice and we will see you at Guild.

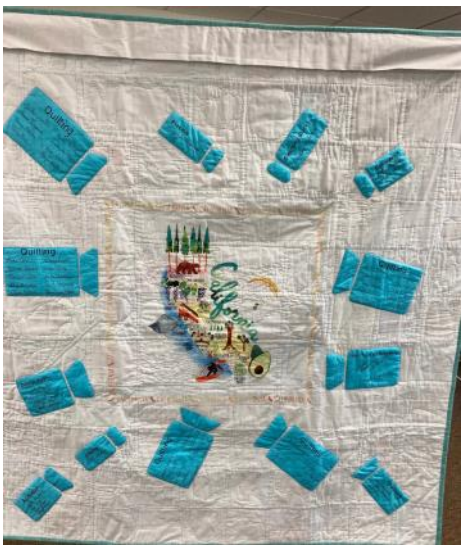
A Note from Wendy

Dear members of the Beach Cities Quilters Guild the words thank you do not do justice to the feelings I experienced when my quilt was revealed at my last meeting as your President. A wave of total awe, gratitude and joy at seeing all the fabulous blocks you all found time to create for this amazing quilt. I have been studying each and every block and they are all so special and fun to look at and admire. Being your President has challenged me in ways I never expected and proud to be the leader that guided us through a most difficult time for all of us. I'm so proud of each and every one of you that has continued to support our Guild and keep it strong and thriving as evident in a most successful Fall into Quilts event and the continued membership roster.



Thank you all for each contribution big or small that you made to keep our Guild the best in Orange County! And a giant thanks you to each one of you that contributed to my fabulous Quilt!

It is an honor to turn over the leadership to Jennifer Morgan who will be an outstanding President.

Sincerely,
Wendy

Fall Event Fundraiser Recap

Dear Quilting Friends,

Our Fall Into Quilts fundraiser on Friday, Oct. 24th and Saturday, Oct. 25th was a tremendous success, thanks to all of our Guild members who attended, brought friends, bought tickets, shopped at the Boutique, bid for quilts, shopped for Raffle Baskets, enjoyed the Friday reception food, friends and wine, etc. Our net profit (after expenses) is $20,780.00. We might have a few receipts still trickle in, but this is the number as of this writing. Unbelievable! This will allow us to cover our operating costs for several months, pay Philanthropy's budget of $5,000 as designated, and have a buffer.

There was so much going on in the rooms at the Murray Center and our parking lot was filled with quilters' cars. We want to welcome the new members that joined at the event and it was great to see many of them at the October meeting! Welcome to the most wonderful quilting Guild! BCQG is a special place.

Special thanks go to everyone on the Committee for their hard work, but I'd like to mention:

Margie Bushaw, Lickety Stitch Quilting Lounge: Her Sponsorship of the Friday night reception made it possible for us to keep the cost of the food and beverages IN our budget, plus some! We are very grateful Margie!

Sue and Jim Peters: They together contributed a significant amount of donations, including beautiful raffle baskets filled with special gifts and each having one of Sue's quilts. Jim made and donated five lovely hand-crafted wood items for sewing rooms: 3 quilt ladder stands and 2 project towers. His items alone raised $1,000 for the Guild! (If you did not win one of the items, you call him for a quote. He has very reasonable pricing and can make it to your specific colors, stains, etc. Sue Peters' phone number is 949-939-8810.)

Elaine Pappas-Puckett: Elaine was our amazing Auctioneer for the Quilt Auction (wasn't it FUN) and our wine ambassador too with her husband John for the Friday Reception. We are so grateful for their time volunteering for us.

Mary Arntz, Wendy Price & Roxanne Seagroves: The Boutique was such a highlight of the event and the beautiful tote bags, gift items and holiday treats were merchandised expertly by Mary. Her constant staging made the room seem "new" and filled with MORE items every time I went in. I loved that Guild members were lined up after 8 am to shop!

Patricia Pardoen and Gail Brunell: The Murray Center has never looked so festive as it did that weekend! Patricia and Gail worked very hard to assemble so many beautiful things, bring them to the Center, decorate, then strike everything. The room was transformed with many helpers who turned it into a beautiful space. Thank you so much … it was really festive!

Julia Renaud, Joann Florence & The Catering Team: Julia and Joann took the Friday Reception to new heights with their expert choices from Jay's Catering, plating, set-up and serving everyone. All in attendance said how special the evening was and the food was delicious. All of that coordination takes time and we are very grateful!

Julie Greenspan and Jennifer Morgan: The Quilt Auction was exciting to watch and participate in. The bidding wars were really fun to watch the friendly competition. Julie and Jennifer are so outstanding at this and we thank them for holding the quilts and working on this for almost two years!

Jan Johnson & Jan Pearce: The Raffle Basket area was fantastic and in fact, we had to add an extra row of tables to the area to accommodate everything! We had fun moving those tables over ladies, didn't we? There were so many themed baskets, a new sewing machine, a press, a cutter, truly something for everyone. We were very blessed with donations and Jan & Jan's creativity. Thank you so much!

Also, our Internet Team was a strike force online and got the word and pictures out which built-up excitement for the event. White Glove volunteers kept our Quilt Auction items safe and clean, while talking them up to prospective buyers. Our Information Booth was busy with talking to quilters about the Guild and taking new memberships. The 2020 QS pins sold well and it was nice to add it our collection. Event photography helped us record the event in case we want to hold it in the future and Volunteers worked to get the Committee helpers in every area possible.

If I have not mentioned you, please know that I have not forgotten the hard work and long time that you invested as a Committee Member and you will be celebrated at the Wrap-Up Meeting at Elaine's house on Oct. 26th.

Thank you everyone! Now we can get some rest and feel GREAT about our hard work. I know that I do.

Best Wishes and Happy Fall Stitching,

Keri Follmer

From the Hospitality Committee

As much as we would love to have homemade goodies for the meetings, we feel that it is prudent to stick with the pre-packages treats until Covid is more under control. So save up those recipes and tasty ideas for treats until we make the decision to go back to homemade offerings.

Thanks for understanding and we will let you know through the newsletter when that decision has been made.

Pat Ballard & Deb Komatsu

Friendship Groups

I am happy to report that ten people, including me, filled out the New Member Form to join a friendship Circle.

I have called and spoken to, or left messages for, each of them and, as of this date, we have seven new members that have agreed to create our own new circle. Phyllis Parente has offered her home as our permanent monthly meeting location. Juan Garcia has offered to be the 'teacher' for our first meeting, showing us all how to make teddy bears for the upcoming boutique. We will have different projects each month but preparing items for the boutique and philanthropy are high on our list of group activities.

New quilters are absolutely welcome. You don't have to be a good quilter. It took me three years to realize that I was not being compared to any of the amazing quilters in our guild. I am learning a little bit with each new thing I attempt and you will too. Come and join us.

I only received four forms for ongoing Friendship Circles. What great names you have! I would very much appreciate it if those of you already in Friendship Circles would come to my table (I will be sharing space with Welcoming) and give me a little information about your circle, even if you are not looking for any new members.

Thank you for this opportunity to be part of something so fun and so good for the community.

Karen Bean

New Group - Teddy Bear

Here is your opportunity to help make Teddy Bears for philanthropy and join a Friendship Group. It's a great way to change gears and have a reset for at least a moment, if nothing else. If you are interested in joining us. Please contact Juan Garcia at ocbear949@gmail.com

Philanthropy Report

Philanthropy has had a busy month. We have gone through the storage space and refolded all of our fabric, cleaned up and organized. New batting has been ordered to get us through the year and at Joanne's last sale, we bought a lot of flannel for backing. We are off and running for a new year. Our Silent Auction brought in $2525. Hurray.

For some good news, we have found a location to hold our "Sit and Sew" days. Surfside Quilting Guild has graciously offered to share their space with us at San Clemente Presbyterian Church on the third Wednesday of each month. We can utilize the basement of the church with them at the same time as they hold their own Philanthrophy days. They have a big space with plenty of room for us. We have looked into all other avenues of finding a place and this should accommodate our needs. The church address is 119 Avenida De La Estrella in San Clemente. Our first meeting will be in November, the third Wednesday.

We are presently on tract to the amount of quilts we donated last year. 93 quilts were given away last month including 26 quilts to the Caldron fire victims.

Fondly,
Sherri Peltier

Sunshine & Shadows

The only source for gathering information is through you. Please do not hesitate to let me know. Don't think that someone else will do it. It is better to get 20 messages than not hear at all.

If you have something you would like to be included in this column, please contact me. Please include your name and contact information, and if about someone else, their name and contact information for verification.

Thank you.

2022 Spring Quilt Show— "Quilts in Bloom"

Hello fellow Quilt Guild members, for those who were not at the last meeting, Wendy Price and Liz Pickering have volunteered to lead the Spring Quilt Show Committee! We have been extraordinarily blessed by the outpouring of support for this event, and we are very excited to tell you our plans so far. This will be a melding of the old and the new.

Location:	Norman P. Murray Center!
Save the Dates:	Friday, April 8, 2022 5:00pm to 8:00pm - PREVIEW
	Saturday, April 9, 2022 10:00am - 3:00pm Quilt Show and Auction

We loved our Fall fundraising reception in the Fall, and we plan once again to have a wine pull (donations accepted at our upcoming Guild meetings), a preview of the quilts and raffle baskets, and of course, appetizers and beverages. This will be a ticketed event, and your ticket also gives you access to the Saturday event. We are also planning a very special raffle this evening, more to follow next month...

This will be a Quilt Show! We want to encourage everyone to show a quilt, but our space is limited. To that end, we will limit entries to one quilt per person. You may enter a second quilt, so that we can display it if we find we have room, more to follow on the process in the next month or so.

And there will be an auction as well as a boutique (donations gladly accepted now). We hope you will invite your friends, neighbors and family members to our event. We are still ramping up, but hope to have Opportunity Quilt Tickets by the next meeting, Patricia Pardeon has graciously offered to head our Opportunity Quilt Team, she will be looking for volunteers to take the quilt to events in the next (gulp) five months, and we are hoping to have a spot at Road to California as well, everyone keep your fingers crossed.

This is a new world, folks, and we will follow any requirements in place at the time of the event. That is all we can say for sure now, we hope to have our dedicated webpage at beachcitiesquilters.org up and running by the time you read this newsletter, where we will keep you up to date on Quilt Show news, we will be sure to have a link there from the home page.

By the way, we are still looking for volunteers to chair the following Quilt Show Committees, contact us if you are interested in one of these positions:

Secretary
Decorations
Admissions Advertising/Marketing
Awards/Judging
Opportunity quilt in-house sales

Looking forward to an exciting event in the Spring!

Our snippets now come from a new site, if you have not received a snippet in October, please check your spam for a message from Beach Cities Quilters Guild. Then tell your email it is not spam. If you still don't see any snippets, or need help, please contact Liz Pickering.

We are pleased to announce that our new website is up and running!

We hope you will take a moment to check it out. Among the things you can now do are:
Pay your membership online! We have received over 25 payments through the website in just the last few weeks and more are coming in every day. This is now a two-step process, go to beachcitiesquilters.org, then click the Meetings button at the top of the page, then select "Payments". Fill out the online form with your membership renewal information and click submit.

Next, just below that form, click the Membership Payment button, and follow the prompts to use PayPal to pay your $40 membership fee. Don't have a PayPal account? Simply check out as a guest, and you can enter your credit card information. This is a secure website, if you have any questions, concerns or problems, don't hesitate to contact us.

We plan to continue Zoom meetings through November, go to beachcitiesquilters.org, then click the Meetings button and select "Virtual Information" to see the Zoom meeting id and code. We will also post the Sew and Share Zoom meeting information here and send a snippet reminder one week before.

For our new members, Sew and Share is a zoom meeting from 10am to 2 pm the last Saturday of every month (as long as there is interest) to sew, cut, comment, share projects, ask questions, just a time for members to get together live from their own sewing rooms. Join us!!

You can always ask questions and share projects the rest of the month on our members only Facebook page, check it out!

We want this site to be a place where you can find the information you need about the Guild, including upcoming speakers, workshops, and news!

Show and Tell

We all love Show and Tell! It's like a little mini quilt show every month. Please bring your favorite fall quilt to share and inspire, or anything you'd love to share with us. Whether you've been quilting for a week or a lifetime we appreciate all the quilts we see at BCQG meetings!

Come to the Show and Tell table to fill out a form or, even better, type it up at home with your name, the name of the quilter and a little about your quilt. If you would like one of us to read it, just let us know.

Julie, Eileen and Marsha

Rummage Sale

Rummage Sale will be on hold in November due to space restrictions at our alternative meeting site. The good news is that there will be even more choices in December. The sale will start at 5:30.

Please contact Rachel Fernelius if you have any fabric you would like to give to Rummage She can pick up any donations that you have. We depend on everyone's generosity to keep the Rummage Sale going.

Things to Do

Monthly Mini— "On What Fun"

Happy Thanksgiving Day! I hope that your day is fill with the smells of cooking in the company family and friends. But how ever you celebrate, the most important thing is that you are happy and thankful for all the blessing you received this year.

The holiday season is here, and what fun it is. But also, it can be a bit overwhelming, so just to help you out this month, we are raffling an adorable wall hanging that is just right to get you started with decorating your house or office for the season ahead. It even comes with its own hanger!

The October Monthly Mini was won by Deb Komatsu. Congratulations Deb!

Below is a picture of this month's Monthly Mini to be raffled at the November meeting. Please bring a little cash and tons of luck, and it may be yours.

THE NOVEMBER MONTHY MINI WAS MADE AND DONATED BY JULIE GREENSPAN.

From Julie - Julie has been quilting for 29 years and joined BCQG in 1996! Best decision ever! She enjoys all types of quilting, modern, traditional, paper piecing etc., but she has no plans to ever make a Baltimore Album. She lives with her newly retired husband Scott (prayers being accepted) and quirky dog Charlie!

If you wish to donate a mini quilt for any of the upcoming months, please give me a call or simply stop by our table to sign up for any month you want.

Thank you,

Lupe Maher - Chairperson Monthly Mini

Winner Deb Komatsu with Patricia Pardoen Maker of the October Monthly Mini.

November's "Oh what Fun" is a gorgeous wall-hanging made by and donated by Julie Greenspan.

Workshops

We will follow the Covid requirements of the church and whatever is required by Orange County at the time of our workshop. Regardless, all of the doors to the patio will be open to increase ventilation and we may place some tables outside on the covered patio. Further Covid requirements will be announced closer to the workshop date. If the Covid requirements don't fit an attendee's preference, a refund will be given to the participant.

JANUARY:

It's All About the Border©2019 A 20" Pillow

This pillow is a sampler of four different 5" borders in 20" sections.

You learn how to make the four different borders and how to use them on most any quilt.

The applique is my technique of " invisible machine applique.

The piecing is best with the "6½" Triangle Square Up Ruler". $14.00 includes tax

Great for squaring up ½ & ¼ square triangles! (Recommended but optional for the class)

"It's All About the Border" ©2019 pattern by Sandy Corbin. $11.00 Includes tax.

These can be purchased from Sandy at guild or at the workshop.

The January workshop has changed due to our original speaker having concerns about the Covid virus. Sandy Corbin has graciously agreed to be our speaker and workshop teacher for what looks like a fun and informative class. We all need help with borders and Sandy will offer some fun ideas. Sign up online for the class.

Email Kathy Hutchins to sign up. Cost is $50.
Contact Mary Arntz or Sandy Corbin if you have questions.

FEBRUARY:

Sherri McConnell is a well known fabric and pattern designer. The class will be an adventure in curve piecing. Don't panic - we can do this! Sherri will guide us through the class and we will become masters of the curve. The quilt would be fun in 30's fabrics or a more modern style. A pattern at $9.00 will be required for the class. It's easy to sign up online or visit Kathy at Guild.

Workshops

GENERAL WORKSHOP INFORMATION

STARTING in JULY – WORKSHOPS are IN PERSON

Our workshops are held at Community Presbyterian Church, 32202 Del Obispo Street, San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675. Time: 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM. Please arrive at least 15 minutes early to set up your work space. After the workshop chair helps the speaker and sets up the classroom, she will be happy to help you if you need assistance. Remember to bring your lunch/drink/snack. You won't want to spend time buying a lunch since the lunch break is limited. Fees are usually $50, but can be more when the speaker is bringing supplies. All fees are noted in the newsletter. Do not bring irons even if it is on the speaker's supply list. The Guild will provide all irons. You may cancel and receive a refund if you let the workshop chair know by email 45 days before the workshop. After that time, you can only be refunded if there is a waiting list. We will wait until a check is received from your replacement before a refund request is made. As soon as you see the announcement in the newsletter (usually 3 months before the workshop) you may sign up for the workshop by emailing Kathy Hutchins. If you have any questions, please contact Gail Brunell or Sandy Corbin.

Block of the Month

BOM Mystery Quilt 2021/2022

November

We are starting with Block 3, an easy block to get started on. Since we are not doing the blocks in order, you will need to label your block when you finish it. This will be very important when it comes time to assemble your quilt top. All of the block diagrams will have each piece marked with a number (the order in which they will be sewn together), a letter designating which fabric to put here (refer to your cutting instructions) and the size of the piece.

You will be making this block in 2 sections, then putting the 2 sections together.

Section 1 – sew piece 1 to piece 2, pressing towards darker fabric (since there are no seams to match, pressing direction doesn't really matter)

Section 2 – Sew piece 3 to piece 4, then sew piece 5 to pieces 3 & 4, finally sew piece 6 to piece 5. Press away from your "B" fabric.

Complete your block by sewing section 1 to section 2 and labeling it "Block 3".

For Sale:

Bernina 580 sewing & embroidery machine.

I bought it in 2012 & recently upgraded to another Bernina. This machine has been faithfully serviced every year and most recently in March of this year. It comes with the embroidery unit, all accessories and feet, a windfall of bobbins (86 if I counted correctly), and as a bonus, the Bernina Stitch Regulator and a portable plexiglass slide-in sewing table.
All of this for $3,000 or best offer.
If you want an excellent machine either to upgrade or as a starter, then this is a great deal.
