BCQG's Board Meeting is held the Third Thursday of the Month via Zoom.

From the President

BCQG Members are just the BEST!

The October meeting was One Big Fun Celebration: Presentation of Keri Follmer's President's Quilt which was fabulous, Kathy Stolhand presented the Golden Thimble Award to Julia Renaud, which was well deserved and the very special celebration of our dear sweet Chris Huben's 99th Birthday, who is such an inspiration! Thank you to everyone for your contribution to these celebrations!

Fall is just around the corner, but I am thinking about Spring — The BCQG Quilt Show April 26-27, 2024! I am busy sewing on the binding on my quilt and preparing my entry form to turn in at the December meeting. Download the form today from the BCQG website and submit before the deadline date of January 11, 2024! Oh and did you know that after you purchase your opportunity tickets, you may sell them to others, or you can keep the winning ticket for yourself! So exciting!

Also my apologies for those who could not hear me at the last meeting, and I promise to bring my outdoor voice to the November meeting, plus getting the sound turned up on the speakers!

Finally if you are at the Guild meeting, feeling lonely, or brand new, please grab me so I can introduce you to some of our fabulous members, who will make you feel that you belong to this Fun and Fabulous Guild! Quilters are just the best people ever!

Happy Quilting!
Margie Bushaw
2023-2024 President

From the Past President

“Thank you” does not fairly express the love and gratitude that I feel for my President’s Quilt! I am so honored that so many guild members would take the time to make a block, plus have people hand quilt it at a quilting bee, have hostesses devote time to open their home for quilting bees, as well as the ladies that were involved in the design, basting, hand applique, binding and more! My days and evenings are spent looking at the beautiful blocks, lettering, stitching, applique, special labels, embroidery of all kinds, do-dads added, artistic blocks hand drawn, EPP, foundation paper piecing, raw edge applique, and more. I am in AWE.

When I said “yes” to being a president of BCQG I wanted to grow what Jennifer Morgan had started in her President’s year – to help make the guild the best, most welcoming place for people of all backgrounds to meet and share their love for fiber arts, quilting, sewing, and all of the cross-over hobbies that merge into our membership, like crochet, knitting, costume making, weaving, rug hooking, and more. When I agreed to the Programs job (first step), we were coming out of the Covid closure time and our membership was low. People were just starting to feel comfortable to get together in person and I drew from my special event/fundraising background to try some new things at Beach Cities, which the Board very kindly supported (sometimes with apprehension but smiles... Wine Pull, Fall Into Quilts and more) to help increase our membership and show that we can be creative together and have fun once again. The speakers for this year were my biggest goal.

I wanted to bring speakers that would be of interest to lots of different types of quilters, and a few big name superstars, so that our guild survived, thrived, and grew a little. All the while we made connections with like-minded friends through events, committees, and friendship groups. If you are not yet involved in any of those 3 things, I highly suggest you consider adding one of them, like helping with our amazing quilt show committees. There is lots of fun to be had.

This gorgeous quilt that you have gifted me, and that Jennifer spent 2023 working endlessly on (!), makes my heart overflow with happiness every time I look at it. Thank you! Being president of BCQG is not something that I ever aspired to be, but I am so grateful that I did it. I hope my little story encourages you to give back to the guild in whatever way that your heart is speaking to you about. That little voice ... go ahead, listen to it, and jump in.

Many thanks,

Keri Follmer
BCQG Past President

Golden Thimble Award

To all our guild’s past presidents, I want to thank you for awarding me our guild’s prestigious award. It was a total surprise when I heard my name announced by Kathy Stolhand. It’s been a pleasure for me to be a member of Beach Cities Quilt Guild and to serve as the advertising chair for many years and helping with philanthropy and our quilt shows.

Thank you so much for this award.

Julia Renaud

Fall Tea and Tour Wrap-Up

Bee Thankful

Thank you to all who had a hand in the success of the Fall Tea and Tour! It was a fun day, and we hope you enjoyed it! Traditionally the Tea was just expected to cover it's expenses, however we are pleased to announce that we made over $4700!

It's important to acknowledge everyone who contributed to the success of the event. Thank you to all who bought a challenge kit, and those of you who turned in a finished entry! They were all beautiful and creative and we wish we could have given every one a ribbon. They made for a beautiful backdrop to the luncheon.

Thank you to everyone who contributed a raffle basket, or items to put in a basket. The bounty on the raffle tables was amazing! A huge thank you to Sue and Jim Peters for everything they donated. We are so lucky they are so talented and generous. Congratulations to all the winners.

We couldn't have a Tea and Tour without members who open their homes to us so we can see their sewing spaces and homes. Thanks are not enough for Teresa Thordarson, Sharon Farley, Nancy Lane, Sandy Corbin and Anne Hicks. We loved seeing the places you create!

Finally, thank you to the best committee we could have asked for! Many of them have been on this committee before, and we think that's a testament to how much fun we have!

2024 QUILT SHOW - CELEBRATE COLOR

It takes a village, a BIG village, to put on our 2024 Quilt Show. We have filled our committee positions (yay!) and we now have 40 fabulous ladies already working away on everything from “Acquisitions” to “Wine Pull”.

We are off to a good start but we really need everybody’s participation. So, as the committee works behind the scenes here are some things you can ask yourself...

- HAVE YOU DECIDED ON YOUR QUILT SHOW ENTRY? IT’S NOT A QUILT SHOW WITHOUT YOUR BEAUTIFUL QUILT! You have until April to finish your quilt but entry forms are due on January 11th so don’t delay! If you submit more than one quilt, please indicate which is your first choice as space is limited. Entry form is available on the website or click HERE.
- ARE YOU WORKING ON A DONATION? Please consider donating items for the Quilt Auction, Silent Auction, Raffle Baskets and/or Boutique. You can drop off any items at the Quilt Show table.

Laurel Hathaway, our Boutique Chairperson, has so many patterns, samples and ideas to inspire you! Be sure to visit her table at the next Guild meeting. Here are some of the items that have already been donated (10 minute table runner, Halloween baby quilt, watermelon table topper, crocheted hair band, burp cloths, gnome wine bottle topper, crocheted thread catcher).

- CAN YOU HELP DELIVER FLYERS? If you will be traveling to a “quilty” location outside the OC area (quilt shop, sewing store, retreat, etc.) or have a local newspaper or a great place to post flyers please contact our Publicity team, Christi Valley or Tami Quan.
- HAVE YOU PURCHASED YOUR OPPORTUNITY QUILT & TREASURE CHEST TICKETS? If yes, thank you!!! If no, please do so at the November Guild meeting. Purchase $35 (42 tickets) and we will label and deposit your tickets for you! If you cannot attend the meeting, please contact one of our Co-Chairs listed below. They will be happy to assist you in purchasing your tickets.
- HAVE YOU SIGNED UP TO VOLUNTEER? We are looking for volunteers to travel with the Opportunity Quilt to sell raffle tickets at other guilds. Visiting other guilds can be so fun. You get to meet new quilters, see their speakers and what other fun things they’re doing. So, grab a buddy and go on a little road trip!

Quilters' Marketplace

(Previously known as the Fabric/Rummage Sale)

- November Focus
- December Dark
- Did You Know?
- What is the personality of a quilter?
- FQ Prices

Greetings from the Quilters' Marketplace!

November: Now is the time to prep for holiday décor! We have many holiday fabrics and new arrival fabrics coming to the marketplace in November. Time to make some gifts or fun home décor! Holiday table runners and napkins, fun pillows and placemats, or simple whimsical ornaments.

December: We will not have the marketplace at the December guild meeting. If you need to shop mid-month, give me a call and we can make special shopping arrangements for you. 1-800-GOT FABRIC (Just Kidding.... 714-883-9499) The storage unit is located in Lake Forest, U-Haul, 25290 Jeronimo Road. (Jeronimo and El Toro) Cash or checks preferred and by all means, bring your sewing friends!

Did You Know: Vinegar is an excellent mildew "killer". To remove mildew odor, mix 1 cup of white vinegar in a bucket of water and presoak for at least an hour (or put into soak in your washer). Then launder it in the hottest temperature allowed for the fabric. It would be wise to use a Color Catcher the first time a new fabric is washed. Dry, iron, cut, sew, and quilt away!

What is the personality of a quilter?

They possess the patience and commitment to complete a long-term project such as a quilt.

(They haven't seen my list of UFOs!)

They have the skill and precision to produce work with fine craftsmanship. (Yes, BCQG rocks!)

They have an artistic eye for good design. (Or they buy some fantastic kits)

They have tremendous self-discipline to produce consistent stitching throughout the piece.

(Have you seen all the quilts that are donated by our members? Amazing!)

FQ Prices: Busy people get a done and BCQG members do it well! Thanks to all of you for supporting BCQG's fabric sales. All the proceeds to direct to supporting philanthropic organizations. We have a big goal to reach this next year and we want to keep the prices the same. There is one adjustment that is needed. We are putting the fat quarters to the appropriate pricing of 50 cents to match the $2 per yard pricing. The adjustment will take place the first of 2024. Shop now! Help us Help the Guild. Share our Marketplace with your friends and family!

A bed without a quilt is like a sky without stars.

Creating your world colorful,

Patti, Donna, and Elaine

Workshops

BCQG workshops are generally held on the Friday following the monthly Thursday night guild meeting, at the Norman P Murray Community Center in Mission Viejo. Registration is $35 for members; $60 for non-members. (Annual BCQG membership is only $40, and members have first opportunity to sign up for workshops.) See workshop details in weekly snippets, on the website and below for more information.

You may cancel and receive a refund if you let the workshop chair, Mary Kay Fitzpatrick, know by email at least 45 days before the workshop. After that time, you will receive a refund if there is a person to fill your spot. We will issue a refund after we receive payment from your replacement.

November Workshop – Registration is on a wait list now

Crazy Christmas Trees with Pam Hadfield

Wednesday, November 8th from 10 am -4pm (This Wednesday date is an exception to the usual workshop day, due to the Veterans' Day Holiday.)

The workshop will be held in the Juniper Room of the Norman P Murray Community Center.

Though the pattern title is entitled "Christmas", the table runner or quilt may be any color/theme you choose. It is a great project for 10" squares/layer cakes.

Pam will have the pattern available at the workshop for $3.

The Creative Grids ruler CGRKA6 (Spider Web) is needed to create the proper angled cuts ($28 at Amazon or Walmart)

This workshop has a waiting list. Contact Mary Kay Fitzpatrick to be added to the wait list.

Not a member: email Mary Kay Fitzpatrick

January Workshop – Registration is open

Under the Mistletoe with Diane Knott

This is a paper and curved piecing techniques project.

Friday, January 12, 2024 from 10 am-4 pm in the Juniper Room at the Norman P Murray Center. The pattern is available through Diane Knott's website, $10. It will include the paper piecing patterns and instructions for a wall hanging or table runner size quilt piece.

It is a great project for fat quarters, and an opportunity to swap fabrics for a scrappier look.

Diane promises that you will learn tips for cutting, storing, and piecing fabric strips in a variety of widths. By the end of the process, we will have turned precut strips, sliced yardage and selvages into innovative strip quilt projects.

Visit Diane's website <http://www.butterflythreadsquilting.com/> for more information about her designs and her projects.

February Workshop – Registration opens in November

Machine Quilting: Walking Foot and Free Motion with Christa Watson

Friday, February 9th from 10 am-4 pm in the Juniper Room and Norman P Murray Community Center

Take your quilt to the next level by adding depth and dimension to your designs, using your domestic sewing machine. The secret to success here is the willingness to let go of perfection, creating asymmetrical and free-form designs that create pleasing textures to your quilt. This technique requires minimal marking of the quilt. You will practice free-motion quilting and walking foot (or dual feed) techniques. Prepare for class by sandwiching and pre-basting leftover blocks or scrappy blocks made from your scraps. The class requires purchase of Christa's book, 99 Machine Quilting Designs, ($29) available for purchase ahead of time at shop.ChristaQuilts.com

Philanthropy News

The October Guild meeting was quite a success I heard! So many things happening, President's Quilt revealed, Chris Huben's 99th birthday and Golden Thimble Awarded to Julia Renaud I was sad to miss the festivities.

I am the new chair for Philanthropy, Janice Trumbauer, and I am so excited about the year ahead. There is such a wonderful team that make up Philanthropy, I am grateful to all who participate!

October Sew Day was amazing! Laurel brought a guest, the owner of Quilt Passions, who showed attendees how to make a 10 minute table runner. Hopefully, we'll have some for the Boutique. Pat Price collected another 40 quilts for Maui, totaling 135, and we are no longer accepting quilts for Maui. Thank you to Rosie for having everything run so smoothly as so many of us were not there.

November Sew day will be November 6th.

Show and Tell is at 11:00, you don't want to miss it!
We'll have patterns and kits and fabric giveaways.

Happy Stitching,

Hospitality News

Thank you to all who brought treats to our hospitality table in October. Everything was gone, including Chris Huben's delicious, 99 birthday cake!

Remember, if it is your birthday month, please bring a sweet or savory, on a disposable dish. You are welcome to make a contribution to the table any month too!

Block Party

It was fun seeing the variation of hearts from the finished Block Party Hearts Quilt. We love that whatever someone does, it becomes a wonderful finished project.

What is next, you wonder? Anna Ahmed and Pat Ballard are the new Block Party leaders and are developing a plan for the coming year. We are tweaking patterns to create fun birdhouses. All who have heard are quite excited, including us. At the November meeting we will present the first block and have patterns and instructions ready for you to begin your own creative birdhouse quilt. We hope you will join us. Chirp, chirp.

Show and Tell

Many, many thanks to the outgoing Show & Tell committee who served for two years! Show & Tell is a favorite of many in the guild and each month it gives each of us renewed inspiration to keep going on the many projects we have piling up in our sewing rooms.

November will usher in the holidays and all the many meaningful and fun traditions we share with friends and family. Please bring any quilts, quilt tops, items of clothing, gifts, anything you've completed recently or even many years ago. Isn't it fun to see what we were sewing 5 or 10 years ago? We want to see it all!

We have small forms and pens at the table for you to fill out with the information about your item. Please limit the description to five sentences or less. We appreciate pre typed notes as well.

We are so excited to serve the guild in this capacity and we know the 23/24 year in BCQG will be another great one. Because of all of you.

Your Show & Tell Committee,
Polly Hada, Lupe Maher, France Imagawa

If you have show and tell and not able to make the meeting or forgot to bring your quilt to share — please email carelynn@me.com and you can be added to our monthly show and tell photos.
