Stitches in the Sand

January 2023

MEETING DATE: January 12th at the Norman P. Murray Center and Zoom.

Programs

This month's speaker is Krista Moser.

In January, we welcome Krista Moser, the creative force and inspiration behind "The Quilted Life". She is the designer of the 60 Degree Diamond Rulers for Creative Grids, and has published dozens of patterns, using the rulers, with more in development all the time. She loves symmetry, clean lines with bold colors and thinks shapes that tessellate in all directions are a playground for design!

A quilting and fiber arts enthusiast, Krista started sewing at 8 years old and began her professional sewing and machine quilting career at the spunky age of fourteen and has now been teaching sewing and quilting lessons for more than twenty years.

Krista will be teaching Two one day workshops on Friday and Saturday following the Guild meeting. Come learn all the tips and tricks for cutting and piecing diamonds, triangles, and hexagons, in an easy, fast, and precise way. If you have been wanting to break out of the same old quilting routine, and try something different, her classes will inspire confidence and equip you with new techniques.

Visit Krista's website for more info and her blog : www.kristamoser.com/blog

Dinner with Krista and Guild friends will be at CPK on Marguerite Parkway at 4:45 pm that evening. Please text your RSVP to Margie (949) 233-3350 by Wednesday January 11.

Happy Quilting

From the President

Happy New Year everyone! I am looking forward to 2023 and hoping that it will be a better year for us all in many ways. Personally, I can say the Follmers had a good 2022, except a few family losses that are a part of life and God's plan for us. I cannot complain about 2022 as I know my glass is more than "half full" when I take stock of my blessings. In December, I was smiling at all of the online BOMs offered in January, sew-alongs planned and fun projects that our US fabric companies and Instagrammers offer. We are blessed and I was tempted, but resisted! This girl is going to have just fun tackling some sewing projects I signed up for in 2020-2021 that need some love and attention. I want to enjoy those finished projects in our home, so there is a strong motivation to get going! I thought I would be able to enjoy sewing quilt tops while working from home during the quarantine, but I worked full-time at home (or in the office rotation) so the "sewing at home" never happened.

One gift I am giving myself this Christmas is the gift of more time -- to sew, go walking, take a nap, read, crochet, whatever! I admit that I give up "my time" for others in my family. So, this weekend, I am using the darling, well-designed Quilting Planner I have by Sherri McConnell to get a plan set to make some quilt tops! J I love her idea of saving early Saturday mornings to rise and sew (while the house is quiet), make some blocks, feel great, then have the rest of the day ahead of you. You can apply that to any day that works for you, but she uses the first 1 or 2 Saturdays each month for this. Check out her podcast "A Quilting Life" for some fun listening (Spotify, You Tube, everywhere.) Another favorite podcast while I am sewing is "Inappropriate Quilters" with Leslie and Rochelle. They make me roll and you will enjoy them too (@LeslieQuilts and @donutwarrior on IG.)

We hope you will bring a friend to hear Krista Moser in January. Anyone that loves creativity and color, or could use a creative boost for the New Year will enjoy her, even if they paint, knit, collage, stitch, garden, whatever. They say "a rising tide floats all boats" and that is true. Her enthusiasm is infectious. I will be in the Saturday "Licorice and Lollipops" quilt class. Are you going to one of hers? I cannot wait!

Dawn Heese is coming in February to share her relaxing hand applique technique that has become very popular and has turned many non-appliquers onto the joy of slow stitching here in the US and in Europe. She is a huge talent and works with Bonnie Sullivan on "Made by Hand" their new co-designed wool and applique quilt patterns and Facebook group. If you have Quilt Mania and Simply Vintage issues, she likely has projects in them! Check her out on Facebook: Linen Closet Designs (FB and the web.) She will teach 1 darling folk-style block (a heart and tuplis?) from a famous quilt pattern of hers, just to teach her technique. No pattern to buy, just bring fabrics you want to use, some basic hand-stitching supplies (see Workshops for info.) and have fun sewing with friends.

Sewing Room Tour: We will hold our much-loved "Tea and Tour" event in the fall 2023, changing the event from springtime to fall. If you are interested in being on the tour (we need 3-4 sewing rooms please) or helping on the Committee, we would love to work with you. Please let me know. More information coming! Think of those fun sewing room tours, with fall-themed quilts, pumpkins, Halloween goodies, you name it. It will be great!

Beach Cities will have lots of creative inspiration for its members in 2023. Do you have a friend that would enjoy our meetings, speakers, workshops, and events? Invite them to come with you as a guest one night and see if they enjoy what we have to offer.

Whatever your New Year's plans are, I hope that it includes some fun stitching time for yourself. See you at Guild!

Best Wishes,
Keri Follmer
2022-23 BCQG President

Sunshine & Shadows

In the midst of home renovation problems and issues with elderly parents, Jenn Fant and her family were handed a real tough one. Her fourteen-year-old son, Connor had to undergo neurosurgery the last week of November. We were so pleased to hear at our December Friendship Circle meeting that the surgery was successful and he is recovering nicely. It also should be noted that they just found out that he and his ice-skating partner are 2022-2023 US Figure Skating National Champions for Juvenile Pairs. This is definitely exciting news!!!

The only source for gathering information is through you. Please do not hesitate to let me know. Don't think that someone else will do it. It is better to get 20 messages than not hear at all. If you have something you would like to be included in this column, please contact me. Please include your name and contact information, and if about someone else, their name and contact information for verification.

Thank you, Debra Halverstadt

If it is your birthday Month please bring a snack to share!

Workshops

January

Krista Moser is teaching two one day classes. Once you watch her YouTube videos on the classes you will be so excited to spend one- or two-days learning from her. The videos are so helpful in fabric selection.

Friday January 13, 2023: Krista Moser Workshop Vintage Windmill

The pattern combines charming color combinations with simple shapes to create a secondary design that is deceptively easy. Use the Creative Grids 60-degree Diamond Mini Diamond Ruler to cut diamonds and triangles from strip sets, then arrange your colors to create a one-of-a-kind quilt with NO Y seams. The Vintage Windmill pattern ($12.00) and the Creative Grids 60-degree Diamond Mini Ruler (Approx. $23.00) are included on the supply list. Krista will have both available for purchase at the lecture/workshop. Sign up for the class and the PDF pattern is available at KristaMoser.com for $6.00 with discount code.

Saturday January 14, 2023: Krista Moser Workshop Lollipops & Licorice

The pattern combines just two shapes to make charming stars. The cutting and assembly will be a breeze between the pattern's explicit instructions and illustration for pressing with no Y seams and Krista's insights. The Lollipops & Licorice pattern ($12.00) and the Creative Grids 60-degree Diamond Mini Ruler (Approx. $23.00) are included on the supply list. Krista will have both available for purchase at the lecture/workshop. Sign up for the class and the PDF pattern is available at KristaMoser.com for $6.00 with discount code.

February

Friday February 10, 2023: Dawn Hess Workshop Love Notes Applique Techniques

Dawn Hess from Linen Closet Designs is teaching an applique needle turn techniques class using the tulip block from the Love Notes quilt in the "From the Linen Closet" book. (Dawn is providing the block to participants.) Sign up for the class on the website. Block measures 12" by 24", making it a great learning sample which can be finished as a pillow or wall hanging or inspire you to make the whole quilt. If you are new to applique Dawn loves working with beginners. Great class for those who want to improve the skills they already have.

March- Friday March 10, 2023

Sherri McConnell is teaching a brand-new pattern that was just released mid- December. Please see the website for more information and sign up for the class.

Workshops

April

Robin Pickens is giving participants a choice of patterns, either Mod Flower Box or the Beanstalk pattern. Either pattern will give us the opportunity to have perfect curves and fun with color. The Mod Flower Box wall quilt is Charm Pack or Fat Eighth friendly. Mod Flower Box quilt pattern from Robin Pickens - Robin Pickens The Beanstalk pattern gives you the opportunity to play with your greens (fabric, that is). Beanstalk Quilt Pattern by Robin Pickens with Painted Meadow - Robin Pickens With either pattern you can create the circle template or use the Creative Grids Circle Savvy Ruler. Participants need to have a pattern for class.

SIGN UPS FOR CLASS WILL BE OPENED ONCE THE NEWSLETTER IS EMAILED.

Philanthropy News

Thank you to all who still found time to sew and donate during this busy time of year! This month BCQG donated 115 quilts, 66 pillowcases, 20 NICU blankets, 12 bonding squares sets and 5 fleece throws to our community in need.

Our efforts to bring comfort and support to the women of Ghana was a huge success! 57 bed size quilts will be delivered in January. The beauty and quality of the quilts donated was truly remarkable.

What a fun night of pillowcase making we had! 225 were made and donated to BCQG both before and at the meeting. A special thank you to members who couldn't be at the December meeting but dropped off early, including Nancy Thompson who mailed 14 beautiful pillowcases to my home!

How can you help Philanthropy??

- If you take a kit, PLEASE piece the backing and binding included in that kit. We all like to make tops but finishing the complete kit helps us get them ready for longarm ing/domestic quilting.
- If you don't have time to complete a kit, consider picking up a pillowcase kit, they are fun to make, take about 30 minutes or a NICU blanket kit, these help comfort preemies and keep the bright lights out of their eyes. They only take about 15 minutes to make.
- Also, quilts ready for quilting are always at the general and Sew Day meeting. Domestic or longarm quilting, doesn't have to be fancy!

Our next SEW DAY, join us!
Monday, Jan 3
10 AM - 4PM
Glenwood Recreation Center
25422 Cedarbrook
Aliso Viejo

We have quilt and pillowcase kits, batting and a FREE bin full of fabric and surprises. Show and Tell starts at 11 and is so much fun! Join us!

"Every act of kindness is a piece of love we leave behind." -Paul Williams

Julie Greenspan

Ps.. we don't always have time to make quilts for our friends and acquaintances in need. Philanthropy is here to help. Please reach out to any member of the philanthropy team with your request. BCQG loves to give to individuals in need.

Show and Tell

Get Ready! Get Set! GO!!!!! We are now entering a new year! 2023 has arrived! Have you made all your resolutions? Have you broken all your resolutions by the time you are reading this newsletter? Consider yourself not alone!

One very good resolution is: I am going to do more quilting in 2023 than I did in 2022!! How about that idea? We all have our happy space to sew beautiful items and let's all plan to be in our happy space more than ever!

Of course, Show and Tell wants to see all those wonderful items that you have created so bring them to Guild night and show them with pride! We have forms if you need them so stop by our table when you arrive, and we will be so happy to see your project!

Did someone give you a gift that you want to share? Bring it! It does not always have to be a quilt project that you made yourself. We want to see it all!!

Happy New Years from your Show and Tell Committee,
Anne, Eileen, and Marsha

February Guild: Please bring your projects that you created in the workshop with Krista Moser. Also, bring any valentine/heart quilt to show! How fun that will be!

December Show and Tell

December Show and Tell

Friendship Circles

I would like to tell everyone a little about one of the newest friendship circles at B.C.Q.G. These are the current members of Sew Happy! From right to left, Laurel, Anna, Beth, me (Karen), Tina, Terri, Jeanenne, and Teresa. It has only been four months since their first meeting and you would think they have known each other for years.

These women are very energetic and are always thinking of something more to do. They have already had Beth and Teresa show the rest of us two different ways to machine paper piece. They not only shared their skills, but they cut enough pieces for us that we all could give their methods a try.

Ana is ready to plan our first Sew Happy retreat. She just needs to find someplace reasonably affordable and not booked out a year in advance. If any of you can give her some ideas of who to contact, please reach out to her. Anna Ahmed's email address is annalahmed@hotmail.com.

We have a couple folks that are longarmers as well as individuals with specific skills that they are happy to share with others. We will be having a 'Hand binding' vs 'Machine binding' demonstration in January with a couple small quilts so everyone can practice the method they don't normally use!

Jeanenne just joined the group. She does amazing modern quilts, dying her own fabric as well as painting, then embroidering and adding embellishments to her projects. She has already offered to teach us a way to dye fabric using ice. She brought examples of her fabric and everyone is excited to learn this and other techniques from her.

If you would like your friendship circle highlighted on the Friendship Circle page of the newsletter, send me a picture and a short description of what you do at meetings.

2 year old M7 Janome for sale. I loved this so much that I bought the M17 with the embroidery unit. I know what you are all thinking. Excellent condition, just cleaned. I bought the Janome tote and an upgraded foot storage case. $3500. Paid $7000.

Thanks, Sherri Peltier
