Class Description

This quilt is called Weekend Candy because it's a sweet treat you can make in a weekend! It really is so quick and easy to sew, once you make one you will have to make another! In class you will learn tips and tricks for cutting and sewing long strips of fabric, basic quilt construction, quilting and binding. This is a great quilt design if you have some beautiful fabric that you've been scared to chop up – because of its large pieces, Weekend Candy lets pretty fabric shine! This class will take you from start to finish with a throw size quilt. During the last class Enjoli will be attending to help teach about free motion quilting techniques.
