Fun with your Cutter – Quick Gifts 2021 with Jerry Hunter and Elaine O’Hanlon

Join Jerry Hunter and Elaine O’Hanlon as we use our cutters to cut vinyl stencils and HTV to make four quick gifts for the holidays.

For this class you will be cutting adhesive and stencil vinyl to make stencils for glass etching and wood burning. You will also use adhesive vinyl to make a ring dish and HTV to make an oven mitt that can hold a bag of cookie dough mix and spatula (not included in kit).

Kit fee for this class is $15.00

Supplies Needed

- Brother Scan N Cut, Silhouette Cameo or Cricut Air or Maker cutting machine with all cords and cables (please be sure your cutting machine has been updated with the latest firmware updates) ✓
- Cutting Mat and weeding tools of your choice. ✓
- Laptop computer (for Silhouette Cameo and Cricut users)
- Silhouette Studio software installed on your computer (for Cameo users) or Design Space (for Cricut users)
- A flash drive so we can give you the design for your cutting machine. ✓
- Weeding tools, tweezers and small scissors will make for a more successful weeding experience. There are fine details in these designs, as we weed the stencils, you will need to cut away some small parts. ✓

There is no before class preparation.
