Coronavirus (COVID-19)
Brigham City Buildings & Services

Brigham City, UT – Brigham City made a determination to close some City Buildings in order to help reduce the risk of Coronavirus (COVID-19) exposure in the community. Effective immediately Brigham City Senior Center, Museum and Library have been closed to the public.

Meals on Wheels recipients will continue to receive home deliveries. Take-out meals will be delivered curbside at the east door of the Senior Center. Take-out meal, commodities and Ensure will be available with a 24-hour advanced notice by calling 435-226-1450.

Library patrons may continue to use online services, (eBooks, downloadable audio books online tutoring) from their homes. The staff will be taking phone calls Monday through Friday from 10AM – 5PM to assist with Library questions. The drop box for books will not be open. Late fees will not be charged during the closure period. A grace period will be given for at least 1-week after the Library reopens during which fines will not be charged.

The Academy Center events with over 50 people have been cancelled for the next two weeks. Events scheduled for the next 8 weeks will be notified that their event may be canceled. Refunds will be offered to anyone with a scheduled event within the next 8 weeks that would like to cancel.

Brigham City is following Governor Herbert's and CDC guidelines, and will continue evaluating the situation over the next two weeks. Information and guidelines about COVID-19 is available on the state of Utah website at <https://coronavirus.utah.gov/>.

The public is encouraged to utilize online services and phones as much as possible to communicate with the City, family, friends, neighbors, etc.
