Salem City Solar Options

Dear Citizen,

There have been many inquiries and questions regarding solar energy and its applications in Salem City. As a provider of reliable, affordable power, Salem City and its wholesale partner, Utah Municipal Power Agency, work to provide the best power possible.

We are aware of citizen desire for clean power as part of the power mix offered to our electrical system. For this reason UMPA and Salem City have developed an opt-in program that allows customers to purchase solar power without installing a roof top system. The Program is called Renew Choice. This is certified solar power that can be purchased in 100kw blocks by homeowners and businesses alike. This will allow clean power to be purchased on a Utility scale and scheduled as a resource instead of fossil fuels. Because we're buying solar electricity as a resource from Utility suppliers it helps the City plan for the needed power during peak load times and when solar isn't available.

For More information about this program and the requirements and fees for roof top solar can be found by calling Salem City at 801-423-2770.

ATTENTION SENIORS:

The Salem Library Senior Citizen Advisory Board is hosting another terrific class for its "Senior Citizens". Please join us for an informative discussion presented by Hillside Medical Clinic.

Topic: Health concerns for seniors—symptoms and treatment

When: Tuesday, October 18, 2016 at 1:00 p.m.

Where: Salem City Library, 59 S. Main

The class will be taught by Chad Parrish, PA-C

HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

ATTENTION VETERANS: The Salem Hills High Football Veteran's Night has been changed to Thursday, October 13th. Dinner will be at 6:00 p.m. at the football field and then you will be escorted onto the field prior to the game which starts at 7:00 p.m.

SALEM YOUTH COUNCIL

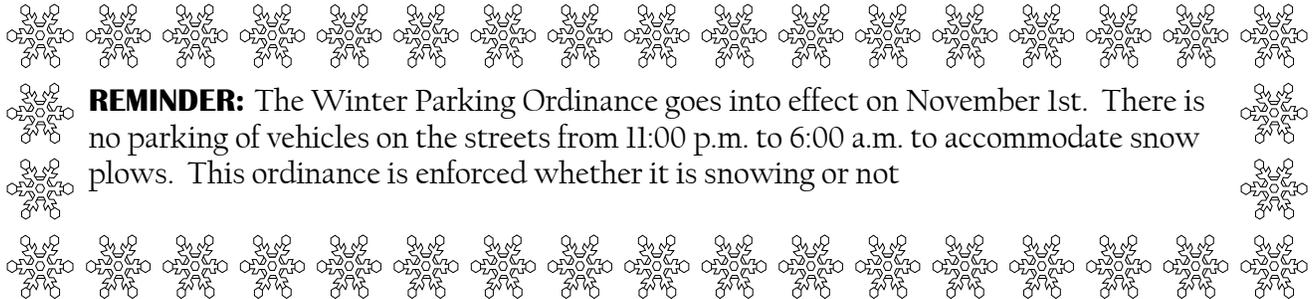

Last month the youth council helped with the YAM (Youth Always Matter) ice cream party. It was a great time, we all enjoyed being there and helping to serve our community, especially if it involves ice cream.

This month we'll be having our annual Halloween party at the library. That will be happening on October 27 from 6-7:30. Come dressed up in a costume and be ready for a spooky night!

Thank you to everybody on behalf of all of us on the youth council for allowing us to do what we do. It's a pleasure to serve all of you and our great community!

-Mayor Brian Stewart

REMINDER: The Winter Parking Ordinance goes into effect on November 1st. There is no parking of vehicles on the streets from 11:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. to accommodate snow plows. This ordinance is enforced whether it is snowing or not

SALEM READY CLASS

"PRESSURE COOKERS - Most efficient cooking method"

Derek Haynie

Friday, October 28, 2016 7:00 pm – 8:00 pm

Salem West Stake Center, 695 South 300 West

Casual Dress

Derek Haynie, the director of Mapleton Ready for over 8 years, will teach us all about using a pressure cooker.

Most of us know that pressure cookers prepare food in record time, but few of us know how these kitchen appliances actually work. This method of cooking helps retain nutrients and taste, saves fuel and time in food preparation, the kitchen is cooler, less clean-up is required and a pressure cooker can also be used to preserve food.

ALL INVITED! BRING A FRIEND!

Fall is the time for raking leaves as well as seeding and fertilizing your lawn. Here are some tips for managing your lawn while preventing stormwater pollution.

- Dispose of leaf litter and yard waste in a compost pile and never in the street or stream. You can shred yard waste to use as mulch or fertilizer for your yard or garden.
- Do not use fertilizers immediately before a rainstorm, and do not apply them in excess. Always follow the directions on the product for safe application and disposal whenever you use a chemical product. Reduce outdoor and household chemical use as much as possible.
- Add native plants to your yard. Now through Thanksgiving can be the best time to put native plants into the ground. Many plants go dormant in the fall and winter and will not require much maintenance to survive until spring. Native plants aid in the infiltration of stormwater and provide important food and habitat for wildlife.

SALEM LIBRARY

801-423-2622

October is a great month to come into the Salem City Library! As the weather begins to get chillier, it's a perfect time to stop in and check out a few books to cozy up with. There will be a Super Cheesy, "Cheese Ball Great Pumpkin" hanging up in the library, come see if you can guess how many cheese balls it took to make it and at the end of October, the person closest to the actual number will win a barrel of cheese balls! We will also be having a Jack O'Lantern contest (bring you jack o'lantern in starting Wednesday, October 19th) and a Painted/Decorated Pumpkin contest (bring these pumpkins in beginning Monday, October 10th). We will be displaying the pumpkins all month long and at the end of the month fun prizes will be awarded! Fall into the library this October for fun and good books!

Senior Spotlight

What a beautiful time of year to spotlight Leray and Linda Peacock Warren. Leray was born in his Grandparent's home in Salem on February 11, 1932. His parents were Wm. Owen and Ruth Stacy Cloward Warren. He was delivered by Dr. A. L. Curtis. Linda was born on March 31, 1943 in the hospital at Ely, Nevada and her parents were Clifford Lamar and Lucy Mary Jensen Peacock. She grew up in Lund, Nevada. Linda is the youngest of seven children with 2 brothers and 4 sisters.

Leray has lived in Salem all of his life. Linda moved to Salem in 1995 from Reno, Nevada as a single Mom. Leray first married his childhood friend, Beatrice Koyle, the daughter of Merrill and Dee Koyle, on June 5, 1952. She passed away on November 18, 1995, after 43 years of marriage. He met Linda Trautman through the LDS Church Single Adult Program and they were married on May 7, 1999. Leray has 5 sons and 1 daughter: Boyd Leray (Dorthea), Salem; Mary Ruth (Roger) Forsey, Payson; Bruce (Heidi), Salem; Brent (Maureen), Salem; Brian (Lori), Salem; and Bradley Owen (Julie) Salem. Linda has 1 son and 3 daughters: Connie (Warren) Hayes, Littleton, CO.; Julie (Roger) Taylor, Baldwin City, KA.; Carl (Tracy) Trautman, Kuna, ID.; and Janette Steel, Sparks, NV. Together they have 44 grandchildren and 45 great grandchildren. Of these Boyd and Dorthea have two sets of twin grandsons.

Leray was President of his Salem 9th Grade graduating class. Some of his class mates were Lew Christensen, Harry Davis, "Billy" Rust and Don Underwood. After 9th Grade they went to Spanish Fork for High School.

Because of a rheumatic heart condition, Leray, did not serve in any branch of the service. Just out of high school he went to work for U.S. Steel, Ironton Plant, then went to the Illinois Trojan Powder Plant up Spanish Fork Canyon and retired from Pacific States Pipe Co. with 33 years. Leray always wanted to be a farmer, but found that it did not pay the bills; although he did purchase his grandfather's farm in 1962. He has hired a lot of Salem kids to work for him at the Springs to haul hay. His five boys run the farm today. Linda provided for her family by having a children's day care in her home for over 30 years in Reno, NV.

Leray and Linda are both active members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, holding several positions. At one time Leray was one of the seven Presidents of the 70 of the Spanish Fork Stake, a member of the High Council 6 years and was a member of the Salem 1st Ward Bishopric. They have been Ward and Stake Mission Leaders. Leray has done a lot of missionary work in his life. They had six grandchildren serving missions at once: 3 from his side and 3 from her side. Linda is a member of the Salem Camp of the DUP. Linda said her grandparents were sent out by the LDS Church from Manti and Moroni, Utah to settle Lund, Nevada. It became a farming community and she grew up on a dairy farm. Leray said they have a lot in common because of this, and Linda made him a better man. Leray lovingly calls Linda, "His little Nevada farm girl."

Leray and Linda were selected as Salem's Family of the Year for 2011. Leray allowed Salem City to have a utility easement to run a power line to the Salem City well.

Leray doesn't like pineapple but loves chocolate. Linda loves chocolate chip cookies and loves to bake cookies. She likes to sew, hand embroidery, cook, collect dolls, quilt and do photography. One of her pictures was selected for the 2017 Salem City Calendar. Her grandson, Niel Hayes, loves photography and he has pictures of the Payson LDS Temple at Seagull Book in Spanish Fork. Leray said "Taking care of him is a big job for Linda."

Leray's talent is being a wonderful farmer and a great father and grandfather. He likes to see an even patch of barley, even corn fields, peas in bloom; remembers how the fields looked, they were beautiful. He remembers Salem when it had one LDS Ward. He likes to remember the "good old days". Leray said he remembers when he was young he learned to drive a team of horses. The farming was done with horse-drawn equipment. Both Leray and Linda liked to travel especially to visit Linda's children. They have been a lot of places and done a lot of things. He couldn't be more appreciative of Linda, saying she is a beautiful wife and treats him really well. They both come from a religious pioneer background and because of the way they were raised, they get along so well. Leray and Linda want to thank their neighbors and friends of Salem for the wonderful life they enjoy here in this beautiful, peaceful town of Salem, Utah. Salem is a very special place to raise a family.

Leray and Linda, thank you for sharing your life with the citizens of Salem.
