The Fabric Friends Book Club

Our last read was more of a marathon as we skipped a month while Cindi and Brianna were out of the country on a quilting cruise. You can check out the newsletter that listed all those titles HERE and if you want to listen to the reviews, which includes spoilers... CLICK HERE.

What's Next.....?

We forgot all about voting on our next read, so during our live we took suggestions! We have picked to read a historical fiction along with a more fun, fast read to spread some joy and laughter in our lives!!
Hope you enjoy our choices! Happy reading!

Save the DATE! Our next Book Club Review will be Monday, October 13th at 11AM PST

Titles for the month:

Sandwich by Catherine Newman

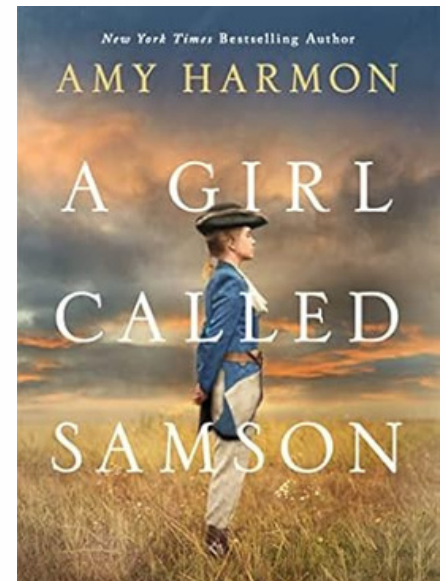

For the past two decades, Rocky has looked forward to her family's yearly escape to Cape Cod. Their humble beach-town rental has been the site of sweet memories, sunny days, and great meals. This year's vacation, with Rocky sandwiched between her grown kids and aging parents, promises to be just as delightful as summers past; except, perhaps, for Rocky's hormonal bouts of rage and melancholy.

Hello, menopause!

A Girl Called Samson by Amy Harmon

In 1760, Deborah Samson is born to Puritan parents in Plympton, Massachusetts. When her father abandons the family and her mother is unable to support them, Deborah is bound out as an indentured servant. From that moment on, she yearns for a life of liberation and adventure.

Twenty years later, as the American colonies begin to buckle in their battle for independence, Deborah, impassioned by the cause, disguises herself as a soldier and enlists in the Continental army. Her impressive height and lanky build make her transformation a convincing one, and it isn't long before she finds herself confronting the horrors of war head-on.

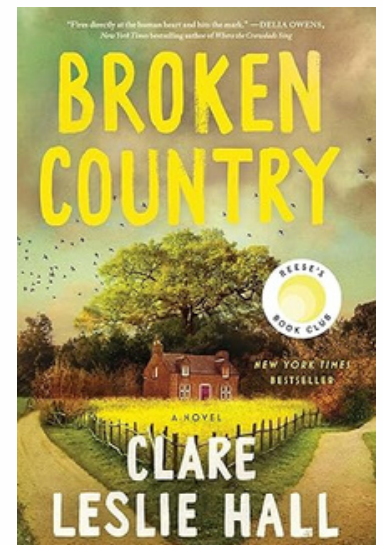

A lot of us in book club are still waiting to listen to this title through our local libraries. It has really good reviews and worth an honorable mention....

Broken Country by Clair Leslie Hall

Beth and her gentle, kind husband Frank are happily married, but their relationship relies on the past staying buried. But when Beth's brother-in-law shoots a dog going after their sheep, Beth doesn't realize that the gunshot will alter the course of their lives. For the dog belonged to none other than Gabriel Wolfe, the man Beth loved as a teenager—the man who broke her heart years ago. Gabriel has returned to the village with his young son Leo, a boy who reminds Beth very much of her own son, who died in a tragic accident.

A sweeping love story with the pace and twists of a thriller

MAKING BOOK CLUB AFFORDABLE

GREAT PLACES FOR BOOKS:

We have equal numbers that prefer audio vs physical books and older books may not yet be available in audio format. Libby is the easiest app, but we often have lengthy waits. You can use your library card for “regional” use, which can open your reach to additional, possibly larger libraries. Check out your library to see if you have regional or even statewide options. Hoopla is another app that will lend you ever more titles, and all you need is a library card!

Other options are PangoBooks, Thriftbooks, Halfprice, Amazon Used books, Kindle and Audible.

It is true many book groups have the primary purpose of exploring all genres which results in stretching our literary experience with new authors and stimulating points of view; often with books we would not pick otherwise. This is not that kind of book club. We all seem to have similar taste and enjoy a good book that shares information while entertaining us. Suspense, intrigue, surprise, emotion, laughter and even tears are OK but our goal is five 5 star reads, every time! Life is too short to suffer through a bad book!

We would like suggestions from you for favorite authors and titles. Email your suggestions to info@fabricpatch.net
