

Class Name: Edge to Edge Quilting with Embroidery 101

Instructor: Colleen Anderson

We will spend time making and learning how to use the template which you will be able to use on multiple quilts so worth making a good one. Take a moment to review the information in the book so you have an idea what we will be learning. We are all going to use the same design in class and I will be prepared to copy that design onto your machine but BRING THE BOOK AND CD to class.

Supplies Required:

1. Edge-To-Edge Quilting on Your Embroidery Machine Book with CD by Amelie Scott Designs
2. *Quilt Crossing has created a kit for your convenience. The kit will have the fabric and batting and the template material. So easy for you! Come to class with the quilt sandwich spray basted.

Come to class with the following:

- Your machine and embroidery module.
- Your Jumbo or Maxi Hoop (SMALLER HOOPS WILL NOT WORK)
- Your hoop template with the gray clips attached.
- A pen or pencil for marking the fabric template
- A hand needle for burying threads
- Your all purpose sewing foot for sewing the securing stitch around the template
- Your embroidery foot.
- Thread you want to quilt with - I use Isacord most of the time. Top and bobbin. I used Isacord Color 150 on the model.
- At least 4 pins to pin the template to the quilt.
- Scissors and snips

Optional but helpful supplies:

A MASTERHOOPER/HOOP HELPER is a very helpful tool when hooping a quilt sandwich. Bring one if you have it.
