

Ro Gregg is recognized in the market for excellence in quilt, craft and home decorating. She has been designing fabrics for quilters for more than two decades with style and distinction. Ro is the recipient of thirteen prestigious Tommy awards and over fifty nominations from the American Printed Fabric Council for "Outstanding Design". She has also been featured as an American quilt and home designer at Liberty of London in the UK and is a member of the American Quilter's Society. Ro is a former Vice President of Creative Design of Springmaid-Wamsutta in the quilt and home decorating area.

In 1997 Ro Gregg Inc. and Designs From The Heart was started and her designs were licensed by over eleven diversified companies in: fabric, giftware, bath, tabletop, gift wrap, rugs, and floor mats. Her main focus is designing collections for quilters. Inspired by her love of nature and flowers Ro has designed thousands of fabrics with trendy romantic freshness. Ro says. "Designing for the much loved tradition of American quilting is truly gratifying".

Driven by her passion for quilts and home decorating, Ro Gregg collaborated on the quilt and home decoration workbook, "Easy Sew I and II", which features timeless quilt designs and endless decorating tips. She loves designing her own quilts to showcase her fabric collections and is an avid collector of antique quilts, fabric and china. Ro and her husband live in Short Hills New Jersey where she also finds time to enjoy the beach, nature walks and her two dogs.
