Happy fall Everyone! Here we are, experiencing things we never imagined. COVID seems to be ever present and on our minds. We have learned to stretch and imagine and reinvent. We have learned that coming together is much better than being divided or far apart. I appreciate being part of a community that is willing to come together, to stretch together and to reinvent together. I want to express a very heart felt thank you to Chief Randy Nielson and the members of the Ferron Fire Department. I sincerely appreciate their service over the many years they have been volunteers serving the citizens of Ferron. There have been countless hours spent in training and serving this community and it has not gone un-noticed. As many of them venture on to new opportunities of service within the community and with their families, we wish them luck and pray for their happiness and success. We look forward to new volunteers on our Fire Department. Volunteering in general is not what it used to be. It becomes harder and harder to find individuals that find a deep commitment within themselves to become a volunteer in their communities. Luckily, we live in a community that still has citizens with many with those attributes. I invite each of you to examine your own circumstances and your heart and volunteer to serve those in our community. Whether it be as a volunteer firefighter, friend to the lonely and downtrodden, assistant at the school or care center, member of a trail committee, or a volunteer in church service in your religious community, we can all find opportunities to serve and help one another. I believe volunteering is something that we are all capable of being good at. We all play an important part in making our community what we would like it to be. Because we are a rural area we do not have the tax base or infrastructure to do many of the things that larger areas are able to do, but we do have something larger cities do not have, a strong community that looks out for its citizens. Our greatest resource is ourselves, our children, and our neighbors. I hope that as the new year approaches, we will be able to come together with an even greater spirit of community and service towards each other. With all the negativity that is spread daily throughout the world, state, and community, it takes a strong personal commitment to rise above and do good. I am always grateful for those of you who do so much good in the community, who look for the positive and who promote happiness amid the daily trials of life. I pray that as you enjoy the Thanksgiving holiday you reflect on the blessings you have received this year. It is easy to overlook the small things that truly bring happiness and peace to our lives. I hope that this year has brought you some of those small simple pleasures that you can now see as great blessings. I am thankful for your support, kind words and gestures. My Thanksgiving feast will be a humble reminder of how lucky I am to call Ferron my home and to have such great family, friends, and community members in my midst.

Happy Thanksgiving!
