

Class Cancellation Policies

- InterQuilten reserves the right to cancel a scheduled class if minimum enrollment is not met 48 hours before the class is scheduled to begin.
- Additionally, a class may be canceled in case of inclement weather (i.e. local schools are closed), or due to instructor illness.
- Any class canceled by InterQuilten will be refunded. Students enrolled will receive a full refund in their choice of : the original payment method; a store credit; or transfer the class fee to a different class.

Student Cancellations

- If you are unable to attend a class in which you are enrolled, please let us know as early as possible.
- Student cancellations received 48 hours (or more) before the scheduled class will be offered a full refund in their choice of: the original payment method; store credit; or transfer of the class fee to another class, according to the student's preference.
- Cancellations received at least 24 hours in advance but less than 48 hours in advance will be eligible for refund in the form of store credit.
- Cancellations received less than 24 hours prior to the scheduled class are not eligible for refund. The student may opt to send someone in their place.
