Class Calendar

Blue Iris Quilt Shop is proud to host Donna Greenwald this month as she teaches her 5 day Landscape Class. This is an intense class and we are excited to say that the class is full! If you have ever wanted to do one of her classes, please let us know so we can add your name to our wait list for a future class.

Natalie Larsen will be teaching two different classes this month. One is her famous Buggy Barn Party which is like a retreat (Blue Iris furnishes lunch for all 3 days) but, you get to sleep in your own bed! Natalie will also be teaching Sampler Shuffle which will start on Thursday, March 17th and we still have openings in the afternoon and evening classes. Refer to our Class calendar for more information.

Are you feeling lucky? Well if so, join us for some Luck of the Irish on Thursday, March 17th. Come in dressed with a wee bit of green, play in our Shamrock Surprise game and perhaps with a wee bit of luck you'll find one of the three Shamrocks that will be hidden around Blue Iris Quilt Shop. Here's the rules laid out by our little Irish friends:

- Shamrock Hunting starts at 10 am
- Shamrock Hunters must be wearing a wee bit of Green
- Only one Shamrock Prize can be claimed per person
- Shamrock Hunting ends when all 3 Shamrocks have been claimed.
