VOTER REGISTRATION DATES & DEADLINES

Every election has certain deadlines for registration. Know what the specific dates and requirements are for your situation, so that you can be ready to cast your vote

By Mail Registration Deadline

Voter registration forms must be postmarked at least 30 days before an election in order to be eligible to vote in the upcoming election. July 15, 2019 for the primary election and October 7, 2019 for the general election are the last day the County will accept mail-in voter registration forms. You may register to vote at a polling location by casting a provisional ballot. This would be at the Iron County Clerk's office.

Primary Election mail ballots will be sent to registered voters from July 23 – 30, 2019 if primary election is held.

General Election mail ballots will be sent to registered voters from October 15 – 22, 2019.

Online Voter Registration

Now it's easier than ever to register online! Simply visit the Online Voter Registration website to find out more. You need to have a current Utah Driver's License or ID Card in order to register using the online system. *

You may use the voter registration website to:

- Register to vote in Utah
- Change your name or address on your voter registration record
- Affiliate with a party or change your party affiliation

Your Online Voter Registration must be submitted 15 days prior to the upcoming election to be eligible to vote in that election; however, you will not be eligible for Early Voting unless you register 30 days or more prior to that election.

*If you want to register online to vote, your address must match the address on file with the Driver License Division. If your address with the DLD is not current, you may update that online at their website by clicking here. This must be done before submitting your online voter registration. After updating your address please allow 24 hours before returning to register to vote online. If your address is not current with DLD you may still use the online voter registration system, but you will be required to print the form, sign it and mail it in.
