Good Ol' Irish fun
Come join the St. Patrick's Day celebration

Friday, March 8, 2013

7 p.m. - City Hall

The Arts Council's March concert will offer a fun, toe-tappin' good old Irish celebration. West Bountiful's very own Irish resident, Alan Marsden, will get you in the St. Patrick's Day spirit with his great performance. We promise a surprise or two for a terrific, "feel great" evening starting at 7 p.m. at city hall.

Movie shorts rescheduled

Friday, April 12, 2013 ~ 7 p.m. - City Hall

January's storm prevented local filmmakers Keith Maloy and Daniel Smith from sharing their work January 11 in a night of movie shorts. The Arts Council is pleased to announce this night of movie shorts has been rescheduled to Friday, April 12 at 7 p.m. at city hall. Come and see Daniel Smith's Rocket Boy which won awards at the 2011 Park City Short Film festival. Then burst out laughing at one of Keith Maloy's crazy short films! Maloy and Smith's films are guaranteed to bring you laughs galore. Bring your snacks and leave your stresses at the door. Then go home feeling happy! This is a night you won't want to miss!

LOVE THE SPOTLIGHT?

The Arts Council wants to give local artists an opportunity to share their talent. Contact Eric Eastman, 801-292-0664, if you know someone from West Bountiful whose work we could showcase at city hall as one of the monthly featured artists. Contact Colleen Maloy, 801-298-0293 if you or someone you know would like to perform at one of our free monthly concerts.

Talented youth to showcase music

Friday, May 10, 2013 ~ 7 p.m. - City Hall

The second Friday in May will be the annual young artists concert. Each year, the Arts Council hosts a tribute to West Bountiful's own talented young musicians. The program showcases a variety of instrumental and vocal performers. Come celebrate the accomplishments of these developing musicians. This will be a night honoring truly dedicated and talented young performers.
