West Bountiful Arts Council

May 3, 2018

Welcome: Lucile

Present: Tiffiny Allen, James Bruhn, Eric and Lucile Eastman, Dianne Smith, Pat Soper

Excused: Paul Maloy, AnJanette Broderick, Shelly Murphy, Debbie McKean

Minutes approved by Dianne seconded by Tiffiny

Paul was asked and accepted the appointment as the new Youth Council Adviser.

Friday ~ May 11 Young Artist concert needs: the new piano, sound system, 2 mics and 2 music stands. AnJanette will make a program. Tiffiny will set up at 6:00 p.m. She could ask if Mike Leger is free to help with the sound.

There was 10 performers: Nixon Clark on cello; Kendyl Clark - piano; Brooklyn Clark - piano; Matthew Newsom - clarinet; Camryn Clark - violin; Brooklyn and Camryn - piano/violin duet; Rachel Fletcher - vocal solo; Ana Clayton - cello; and Zachary Wirthlin - piano. Also violin performances by Aryanna Holmes and Taya Tippetts.

Independence Day

The children's game prizes were $600.00. Games will be from 11:00 a.m. ~ 2:00 p.m. It would be good for AnJanette to work with Tiffiny to set up for the games on the 4th to see how it is done. Could the Youth Council help set up?

It was suggested the opening act for the July 3rd concert could be the Marsdens who performed in February.

Harndcart Days in Bountiful will have Arts and Crafts displays around the 24th celebration.

Once around

We will need to think about someone to replace Paul on the Arts Council.

James: a donation to the Davis Arts Council has been $500 in the past. No one remembered doing that. The City Council needs an accounting of the 4th of July expenses. $13,000 has been budgeted for this year. They went over $6000.00 last year?

Tiffany's son Landon is getting married

Dianne: Could we find someone from the Youth Council to be trained to do the sound for the concerts?

Ideas for a thank-you for Tiffany who is leaving the Arts Council?

Can we think about doing the Young Artist concert in March?

Eric moved to adjourn seconded by Tiffany.

Newsletter items are due May 15th.

May 4 email from Paul

Hi all,

I apologize for missing the Arts Council meeting yesterday. I admit that I completely forgot about it, primarily because after 3 weeks of hospital and rehab care we brought my mom home yesterday and decided to call for an emergency family council to discuss mom's ongoing care needs. Some days are better than others and mom seems to be herself, even a bit feisty, which we all think is good. Then other days, we seriously wonder how much time we have left with her.

I would have preferred to tell you myself of the change that was approved just this week by the city council. Several months back I talked to James Bruhn and let him know that if the City Council ever wanted to make a change to the Youth Council advisor that I was interested in helping. Mayor Romney asked about a month ago and I accepted but did not know exactly when it would be official.

Thank you for allowing me to be part of the Arts Council. I have greatly enjoyed the opportunity to help bring so much talent and entertainment to the citizens of our great community.

Now, as the upcoming advisor to the youth council, you can bet that you will have greater direct support from the Youth Council than ever before, AND I will work towards getting a youth liaison placed with the Arts Council as a way to be more connected for appropriate opportunities, assuming you approve.

Again, I have greatly enjoyed our time together and look forward to working together in the future whenever possible.

Sincerely, Paul Maloy

Pat Soper
