West Bountiful Arts Council

November 1, 2018

Welcome: Lucile

Present: Anjanette Broderick, James Bruhn, Eric and Lucile Eastman, Emily Holmgren, Debbie McKean, Shelly Murphy, Dianne Smith, Pat Soper

Welcome to Emily Homgren!

James Bruhn's mother passed away. The Arts Council approved a plant for him.

Minutes approved by Shelly. 2nd by Debbie.

Next concert will be Susie Carter. Mike Leger will work with her on the sound.

Future Concerts

January: Jean Vandertoolen will talk about her art. She uses water colors and will do a demonstration. Then her artwork will be taken down.

Sherry Midel will be gone on a mission for 18 months and is willing to have her art displayed for that time.

February: Leger/Marsden

March: Paul Maloy will try to work out something with the Youth Council.

April: AnJanette will put together an evening with Young Artists

May: Callesters and Murphys will do a travelogue of their world travels

June: Wayne Eckman and Mike Murphy?

The city manager would like to have photographs of the city displayed in city hall. There was a lot of discussion about how to have residents submit their photos for consideration. Those interested could find out online and in the newsletter. Also the marquee.

Debbie: Could it be a contest with prizes?

Lucile: Winners could be posted in the newsletter and/or online.

If the school children were involved they could focus on the old school.

Shelly: Paintings of places in the city as well as photos?

Lucile: It should be just photos

Debbie is willing to be the contact for Photograph submission. There could be a drop box in city hall. They should be no larger than 8 X 10. 200/300 resolution DPI. (beats me what that means.)

Lucile: There is no need for the submissions to be identified for the selection committee. There should be no age limit or limit on the number of entries.

Lucile: There should be a time deadline.

Independence Day

We need to determine how much money is needed for Independence Day celebrations.

Debbie will put costs into categories. Pat will email it to the Arts Council.

James: City Council should probably have it by January.

Debbie: There are no booths for rent. If we had them made they would be difficult to store. There is a rental of a dunking booth for $100.00 an hour with a minimum of 2 hours. The elementary school rents a dunking booth. AnJanette will look into that. Dave Lubbers is willing to make a dunking booth.

Lucile: will contact Paul to see if the Youth Council would be interested in doing it as a fund raiser.

Lucile: We will need a budget for new games. Emily will brain storm for ideas.

AnJanette: Could we use more table skirts? Also better signs for the games and activities.

There is a new sign company in Salt Lake. AnJanette does signs. Think about a better way to display the signs.

Debbie will check on a large tent for the games.

Once Around

Dianne would like Emily to send a photo of herself to add to the Arts Council picture. We need to talk to Paul Maloy to see if the Youth Council would like the elementary students to sing for Christmas on Onion Street.

Dianne will send Cathy pictures for the newsletter. She will look into revamping the website to have a more direct access to the Arts Council area of the website.

Shelly: Do we need announcers for the parade? Some people like them. If we have them they should be done so it can be heard well. Could our sound system be used? Let's think about it.

AnJanette: Looking for Young Artist. It could be put in the newsletter. Contact ward music chairmen. People who teach private lessons.

Eric moved to adjourn. Shelly 2nd.
