

Heather Gardner

Heather Gardner is a photographer, radio talk show host, wife, and mother. She is the former Vice-Chair of the Davis County Republican Party. Heather was elected as a delegate and member of the Utah Republican State Central Committee. Her past employers include the State of Utah, Franklin Covey, and Utah County. She spends time up on Capitol Hill engaged in grassroots efforts during each legislative session. Ms. Gardner's father is a retired colonel, having served 26 years in the U.S. Army. Her late mother was a social worker and educator.

Heather has a BS in psychology from Brigham Young University. In her free time Heather enjoys participating in triathlons with her family, traveling, reading, autism and education advocacy, genealogy and the outdoors.

Born in Oakland California as an Army brat, Heather has lived all over the United States, in Japan, and Chile. She and her husband are the parents of six children.