Water Quality

West Bountiful is pleased to report that our drinking water is safe and meets all state and federal water regulations. To review the full Water Quality Report go to our website, www.WBCity.org/Community or pick one up at City Hall.

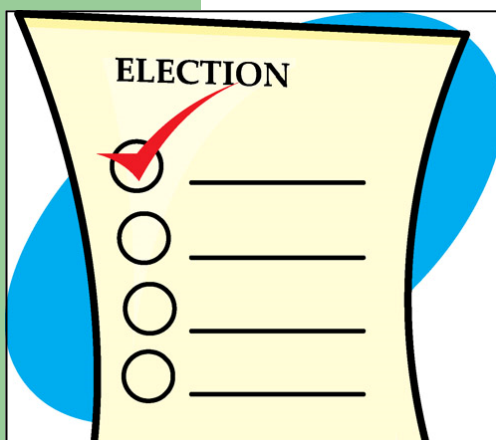

Our local Lowe's will sponsor the "Best Looking Yard" contest again this year. Prizes have been increased. Monthly winners (May – Sept.) will get a Lowe's gift card for $75. Halloween decoration winners will get a Lowe's gift card for: 1st place $75, 2nd place $50, 3rd place $25, and Christmas winners will be given a Lowe's gift card for: 1st place $100, 2nd place $75, 3rd place $50.

Beautiful yards that conserve water will be given special consideration.

SEND YOUR NOMINATIONS TO: Info@wbcity.org. Watch the city's Facebook and Instagram social media pages to see the winners each month.

DAVIS  BEHAVIORAL HEALTH
Community • Commitment • Change

In partnership with neighboring cities and Davis Behavioral Health, West Bountiful City is launching a new program called Communities that Care. This program unites the community to help kids grow up safe and healthy. The aim is to look at the specific needs of our kids and support them in ways that have been shown to prevent substance abuse and mental health problems. To learn more, join us for an Introduction to Communities that Care virtual workshop on Tuesday, June 22 from 10:00 - 11:30 am.
