What is Kamas Valley Youth City Council?

The Kamas Valley Youth City Council is a youth body that will act as a liaison between the sitting city councils in each of the three cities in our valley and the youth of this valley. The KKYCC will attend some city council meetings in each of the three cities in our valley. Additionally, the KKYCC will aid the city councils in this valley with their large projects such as the Fourth of July celebration, Kamas Fiesta Days and Francis Frontier Days and more. Members of KKYCC will hold their own meetings and participate in statewide youth city council activities as well.

If you have questions about your application, please contact the KKYCC advisor, Tera Ames, at the number/e-mail listed above. All applications must be e-mailed to Tera Ames by Thursday, October 4th at 5 p.m. to be considered.
